ROBERTS' DISASTER HARD TO SWALLOW IN LONDON.

REPORTS DO NOT IMPROVE

MATTERS FROM A BRITISH POINT OF VIEW.

THE GUNS NOT RECOVERED

BOERS PROTECTING RETREAT WITH THE ARTILLERY.

London, April 3.—Fuller news of the disaster to the British army in the neighborhood of Sannas Post does not tend to improve matters from a British point of view, but, with the despatches so mystifying it is impossible to accurately portray the present situation or to foretell the ultimate issue of Lord Roberts' attempt to retreive the defeat.

LORD ROBERTS' REPORT.

The war office has posted a despatch from Lord Roberts reading as follows:

"Bloemfontein, April 2, 10:30 p. m.—In continuation of my telegram of March 31—There has been considerable delay in getting accurate returns of the casualties, as the action took place twenty-two miles hence. The telegraph cable has been interrupted several times, cloudy weather has interfered with signalling and, although there has been no engagement since, the force is continually in touch with the enemy.

"There were many acts of conspicuous gallantry displayed during the day. 'Q' battery remained in action under a cross-fire at 1,200 yards for some hours, the officers serving the guns as the casualties reduced the detachments. Several gallant attempts were made to bring in two guns, the teams of which had been killed, but at each attempt the horses were shot.

"The Essex, Munster, Shropshire and Northumberland mounted infantry and Roberts' horse covered the retirement of the guns from that position to the crossing of the drift found by the cavalry two miles further south and withstood the determined attacks of the enemy, who, in some cases, advanced within a hundred yards.

"'Q' battery of the Royal horse artillery was suddenly surrounded in the drift and the officers and men were all made made prisoners without a shot being fired. But Major Taylor and a sergeant major succeeded in escaping in the confusion. Five guns were captured at the same time. Further details tomorrow."

GUNS NOT RECOVERED.

Lord Roberts' despatch seems to finally dispose of the earlier report of the recovery of the guns and the fact that the Boers remain in occupation of the waterworks is taken as an indication that they intend to make a stand sufficiently long to cover the withdrawal of the guns and wagons to a place of safety, although the absence of definite information regarding the movements of Colonel French's cavalry makes it difficult to estimate their chance of adding this crowning success to the blow already inflicted.

A despatch from Maseru, Basutoland, dated Monday, April 2, says the Earl of Rosselyn, who is acting as war correspondent of the Daily Mail in South Africa, and who left there April 1 on his way to Thabu N'Chu, has probably fallen into the hands of the Boers.

BOERS REPORT SUCCESSES.

Pretoria, Saturday, March 31.—There has been heavy fighting between Brandfort and Bloemfontein. The Wakkerstrom and Ermelo commandos attacked 7,000 British and drove them back with heavy losses.

According to the reports of the wounded who have arrived here, fighting occurred all along the line. The federal troops held positions on the side and top of the mountain, while the British positions were on the opposite side of the hill. The British charged repeatedly, but were repulsed.

The latest reports say that the federals were more than holding their own, but the final result of the fighting is not known here. The federal loss was nine killed and wounded.

Reports from Brandfort, received later, state that 2,000 federals attacked 3,000 British successfully, but that 13,0[illegible] Brit[illegible] reinforcements arrived [illegible] the [illegible]'s com[illegible] the British severely. The federal loss, according to these reports, was slight.

A MEXICAN ANNIVERSARY.

City of Mexico, April 3.—Yesterday's anniversary of the victory of the Mexican army commanded by General Porfirio Diaz over the imperialist forces at Puebla thirty-three years ago was observed as a general holiday. Military manouvers were executed on plains of San Lazarus near the city in the presence of President Diaz and hundreds of distinguished guests, cabinet ministers, members of the diplomatic corps, visiting Americans and Spaniards. The president, dressed in the uniform of a general of division and accompanied by a brilliant staff, reviewed the troops.

THE QUARANTINE IS LIFTED

Health Officers Raised the Quarrantine Monday—Dr. Proegler on the Future Outlook.

The health officers believe there is now no further danger from small pox at Sacred Heart Academy north of this city, and the quarantine placed upon that institution was raised on Monday. The patient, a pupil seventeen years of age, has entirely recovered, and owing to the prompt action of the health officers and the excellent sanitary conditions prevailing at the academy, no additional cases developed. The patient's malady was a typical case of smallpox, though of a mild type.

Dr. Carl Proegler, the secretary of the county board of health, stated today that he did not believe there would be much further trouble with smallpox in this county until the coming fall and winter, when a return of the disease might be expected. Dr. Proegler further stated that he had determined upon a rigid enforcement of the vaccination order in all the country districts before the opening of the fall terms of school, and no child would be permitted to attend school until the regulations of the board of health had been complied with. "This spring," said the doctor, "the order came toward the close of the school, and many pupils evaded the order, but this will not be permitted in any case hereafter."

CANAL COMPANY CHARTERED.

Trenton, N. J., April 3.—The Inter-Oceanic Canal company was incorporated here today with an authorized capital of $10,000,000. The company is authorized to construct, own and operate a maritime canal between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans through the territory of Nicaragua, or any other territory in Central of South America. The incorporators are William B. Cromwell, Levi B. Gillchrist, James M. Rooney, James K. Trainer, George W. Bell, Charles P. Cadley and Richard W. Purcell, all of whose postoffice addresses are given as Jersey City.

RUSSIA PREPARING FOR WAR

CZAR WILL ATTEND MILITARY COUNCIL AT MOSCOW.

Berlin Semi-Official Organ Prints a Story of Alarming Tenor on Russian Activity.

Berlin, April 3.—The Koelnische Zeitung, a semi-official organ, publishes alarming reports regarding the busy war preparations which Russia is making on land and sea. The Zeitung announces that the czar will go to Moscow tomorrow to be present at a military council.

All dispatches relating to the mobilization of troops are carefully censored before they are given to the press. Officers who have applied for leave of absence have been informed that all such requests will be denied for the present.

REV. JOHN SCOTT DEAD.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 3.—Rev. John Scott, former editor of the Western Methodist Protestan and the Methodist Recorder, died at his home at Eldersville, Pa., today, of la grippe. Mr. Scott was 80 years old.

LAST OF DEBATE

SENATE TO VOTE ON PORTO RICAN TARIFF TODAY.

CLOSING SPEECHES HEARD

SENATOR MASON PROTESTS AGAINST MEASURE.

SCORES THE REPUBLICANS

SENATOR CULBERSON SPEAKS IN OPPOSITION.

Washington, April 3.—At 11 o'clock today the senate convened to begin the final day's discussion of the Porto Rican bill. Comparatively few people were in the galleries at the opening of the session, although the crowds increased rapidly afterward. After some minor business had been transacted, Mr. Mason, of Illinois, addressed the senate. His speech was not confined to the Porto Rican measure, but included in its scope all the problems attendant upon the control and government of our insular possessions.

Adverting to Porto Rico, he maintained that when the treaty of Paris was ratified the islands became a part of the United States and congress had no more right to put duty on her products than it had to put a tariff duty on products between New York and Washington.

BUT ONE WAY TO LEVY TARIFF.

"Unless you can get the supreme court to stultify and revise itself," said Mr. Mason, "there is but one way to levy tariff upon the people of the United States to prevent their trading with the rest of the United States. You must amend the constitution to do it. You must strike out that clause of the constitution which says all duties must be uniform. I beg you to count the cost of such an amendment.

"I cannot say to Europe, that is wholly foreign and alien, 'you may deliver the product of your labor here upon the payment of 100 per cent. of the present duty,' and then say to Porto Rica, 'you are 85 per cent. American and 15 per cent. alien and you must pay your pro-rata share of an import duty.'

"There is no such thing as 85 per cent. annuition. The people of Porto Rico are either our people 100 per cent. or they are 100 per cent. not our people."

Mr. Mason presented what he maintained was the good faith of the government of the United States. The people of Porto Rica had been promised by General Miles and, at least in an implied way, by others, that they should enjoy all the immunities and blessings of our free government. These promises, he held, the people would demand should be kept.

THE FEVER OF WAR.

Speaking of the fever of war, which he said was upon the administration, Mr. Mason said:

"But as we approach the hour when we must again appeal to the judgement of 70,000,000 people and the fires under the pots of patronage are burning low and the dangers of disappearing postoffices appear to us like a hideous nightmare, the hour of convalesence approaches, and we shout to the laboring people of the country: 'No, no. It is a mistake.' We have sacrificed the money and the lives of the people; we have abandoned the faith of the fathers for land, but we will abandon it all rather than forsake the political partisan doctrine; and we are saying on both sides of the chamber—those who have believed in the permanent government of the Philippine Islands—that if our permanent sovereignty there means the taking into this country, in competition with out labor, products of the people there, we will abandon this kind of expansion."

MR. CULBERSON SPEAKS.

At the conclusion of Mr. Mason's speech, Mr. Culberson, of Texas, addressed the senate in opposition to the pending bill. It was his first speech in the senate and he was given attentive hearing, particularly by his democratic colleagues. He declared that the pending measure, so far at least as the tariff provision was concerned, was "indefensible on moral, economic and constitutional grounds."

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, April 3.—When the house met today Mr. Cooper, of Wiscons[illegible], chairman of the [illegible]mmittee on [illegible]ular affairs, asked [illegible]nimous [illegible] for the con[illegible] of the bill to authorize the secretary of the treasury to designate government depositories in Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines. Mr. Brewer, of Alabama, objected.

A bill was passed to allow men who served during the Spanish war or the Philippine insurrection in the army, navy or maine corps, who enters land under the homestead act, to date the time of such service from the period required to perfect title. Under the special order made some time ago the house then went into committee of the whole to consider the Hawaiian civil government bill

Under the order the debate is to last until Thursday, on which day at 4 o'clock the vote is to be taken. Mr. Knox, of Massachusetts, chairman of the committee on territories, who was in charge of the measure, made the opening speech in support of it.

A DECISION NEAR AT HAND

KENTUCKY COURT ABOUT TO DECIDF CONTESTS.

Court of Appeals Has Case Under Advisement and is Considering Points Involved.

Louisville, Ky., April 3.—A decision in the governorship case is expected from the court of appeals within a day or so, probably tomorrow. At the conclusion of the argument last night the case was taken under advisement and the judges are now considering the points involved. Pending a decision, interest centers in the proceedings of the grand jury, which is expected to return a number of indictments in connection with the Goebel case. The conclusion of the investigation is not expected for fully two weeks.

Governor Taylor was expected here today from his home in Morganstown.

PROHIBIT NETHERSOLE'S PLAY.

Columbus, Ohio, April 3.—A representative of Miss Olga Nethersole visited Mayor Swarts to secure his sanction to the production of "Sapho" in this city. The mayor positively refused to give his consent and notified Miss Nethersole's repesentative that the police would interfere if any attempt was made, to produce the play here.

ARGUING CLARK CASE.

Washington, April 3.—Argument in the case of Senator Clark, of Montana, was begun by counsel for the memorialists today before the senate committe on privileges and elections. Arthur A. Bierney, counsel for the memorialists, was the first speaker.

STAGG A PROFESSOR.

Chicago, April 3.—At the thirty-second convocation of the University of Chicago A. Alonzo Stagg, master of maroon athletics, was promoted to a full professorship in physical culture and athletics.

LOCAL LINES.

Dr. S. E. DeMuth, of Cecil, and Dr. S. S. Frazier, of Kunkle, Ohio, are in the city.

Mrs. J. A. Durand and Mrs. F. Yeagley, of Lima, Ohio, are the guests of Mrs. H P. Moses.

Mrs. Thomas F. Shay, of Cincinnati, Ohio, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Costigan, of 147 Shawnee avenue, for a few days.

Henry Antwerp is critically ill with pneumonia and stomach trouble. Mr. Antwerp is well advanced in years, and is an elder in the Westminster church.

On Friday evening at the home of Mrs. William Lawson, on Grace avenue, the members of the Utile Dulci club will give a character party. Each member will be dressed to represent some historical character, and will bear out the character represented by them as nearly as possible. Mrs. Lawson will be assisted in entertaining by Mesdames Wilson, Saylor and Humphries. The gentlemen are invited.

The Young People's Christian union of Calvary U. B. church surprised the president of the union, W. H. Woodruff, at his home on East Creighton avenue, on Saturday evening, in honor of his birthday anniversary. There were about seventy-five in the party, and they spent a most enjoyable evening. Mr. Woodruff was presented with a handsome arm chair, by the class, as a tribute of their regard for his efforts in behalf of the union. A delicious lap supper was served at a late hour by [illegible] E.

A HOPEFUL VIEW.

OTIS REPORTS ON AFFAIRS IN PHILIPPINES.

AMERICAN LOSSES FOR YEAR

THREE MONTHS' FIGHTING NOT VERY COSTLY.

FILIPINOS' LOSSES HEAVY

THINKS CONDITIONS GROWING MORE PACIFIC.

Washington, April 3.—General Otis has cabled to the war department, probably with a view to correcting erroneous impressions that exist in this country as to the state of the insurrection in the Philippines, a summary of the result of the development of the campaign since the first of the calendar year. His figures go far toward offsetting the belief that exists in some quarters that since the adoption of guerilla methods of warfare the insurgents have inflicted substantial loss upon American arms in comparison with the punishment which they have themselves received. A significant sentence in the report differentiates insurgents and ladrones, showing that Otis has taken cognizance of the fact that a considerable number of the hostiles are not soldiers under the rules of war and may not expect the same treatment. The report, which is dated Manila, April 3, is as follows:

"Since January 1st, one hundred and twenty-four skirmishes in Philippines have been reported, mostly very slight affairs. Our casualties were three officers and seventy-eight enlisted men killed; thirteen officers and one-hundred and fifty-one men wounded. Insurgent and ladrone loss in killed and left on field, 1,453; small arms secured, 3,051; pieces of artillery, 165; large captures of other insurgent property. A number of important insurgent officers are surrendering and the situation is gradually becoming more pacific.

"Otis."

ENLIST NATIVE MUSICIANS.

In reply to a cable message received at the war department some time ago from General Otis, asking for authority to enlist native Filipino musicians in the various regimental bands in the islands, Adjutant General Corbin has sent the following cablegram:

"Secretary of war authorizes enlistment of competent native musicians in regimental bands."

The Filipino musicians are said to display a high degree of musical intelligence and undoubtedly will prove very desirable acquisitions to the military bands.

FINE SHOWING OF PICTURES

ANNUAL EXHIBIT OF THE SOCIETY OF ART.

Rich Collection of Water Colors and Etchings—Excellent Specimens of Students' Work.

The annual spring exhibition of pictures which opened last evening at the public library building under the auspices of the Society of Art will be highly pleasing to Fort Wayne people who appreciate and enjoy high-class pictures, and to the Society of Art must be accorded the credit for the fact that this number is constantly increasing. The present exhibit is radically different from any heretofore shown, though no less meritorious than those which have preceded it. The display is made up very largely of water colors, though there are many fine etchings, and supplementary to the main exhibit is a creditable collection of the work of the pupils of the Fort Wayne School of Art. These are studies in still life, many of them by children of the class, and appear to good advantage even when shown beside the work of those advanced in art work. Among those whose studies are shown are Miss Jackson, Cosette Keegan, Mrs. Randall, Celia Foley, Clara Hull, Miss Buchman, Virginia White, William McKay, Hedwig Dahl and V. Rossington. The main exhibit is from the collection of Albert Roullier, of Chicago, who has so often shown pictures in [illegible] Wayne, and from the stu[illegible] Mrs. Lamb, Mr. Broadhead and Mr. Forkner, American artists of high standing. It is the society's first attempt to secure the works direct from the artists themselves and the result is highly gratifying, for it has brought together collections that are representative of the work of the individual artists and offering at the same time a wide variety of subject and treatment. Perhaps the gem of the whole exhibit is "A Country Road," by Daniel Klotz, a wonderful conception in which the artist has embodied grace and charm and feeling to an admirable degree. Arthur Dawson's water color, "Cows in the Meadow," will be greatly admired, as will also Mr. Broadhead's landscapes, "The Old House," by Mr. Dennis, and Mr. Harris' "Scotch Coast" and "Windy Day." There is wonderful detail in Mr. Pierce's "Circus Poster," and one who has been a boy himself will seem to read the day dreams of the lad who forms the central figure. Miss Swett's collection of sketches of the rugged sea coast country is a striking one, while Mrs. Lamb, a Toledo artist, contributes a number of flower pictures in color in which the brush has faithfully counterfeited nature. The dash of color infused by this collection appears to splendid advantage in the general collection and Mrs. Lamb's pictures will prove quite as fascinating as any in the collection. In all 110 water colors are shown, while the etchings number considerably more, and include the work of Whistler, Seymour Hayden, Gravesand, F. S Church and others. The exhibit, which will remain open until Saturday evening, will richly repay a visit.

NETHERSOLE TRIAL BEGINS

CASE CALLED IN NEW YORK COURTS.

Merits of "Sapho" to be Decided by Law — Special Venire of Talesmen Denied.

New York, April 3.—Olga Nethersole and others jointly accused in a blanket indictment of maintaining a nuisance and offending public decency in the production of a dramatization of Daudet's "Sapho," were put on trial today in the criminal branch of the supreme court, where Justice Fursman presided. Those indicted with Miss Nethersole are Hamilton Revelle, Marcus Mayor and Theodore Moss. Miss Nethersole came into court with her private secretary, and Messrs. Mayer and Revelle. Mr. Moss was not in court and it was said that he was sick. Assistant District Attorney McIntyre endeavored to secure an adjournment for two weeks in order to get a special jury panel. Justice Fursman, however, denied the motion, saying that he was satisfied a fair jury could be obtained from the general panel. The examination of talesmen then began.

Charles G. Becker, a clerk, the first talesman examined, was acceptable to both parties. Several rejections followed, and then Joseph M. Kauffman, secretary of a manufacturing company, was the second accepted.

TWOMEY AND THE "BARON."

Tom Twomey and "Baron" H. C. F. VonWestrumb came together in a fistcuff this morning on Calhoun street. Tom has been employed by the clerks' union distributing cards in front of Fortreide's shoe store and Westrumb had been employed by the proprietor to look out for his interests. The two men often have their "spats" and this morning there came a moment when words were not strong enough and "the baron" smashed Tom over the head with an instrument alleged to be a "billy." A deep gash was cut, which it was necessary for a surgeon to sew up. Westrumb was arrested and hauled to the police station, but was bailed out. Affidavits have been filed against each of the men in Justice Huser's court and it is said other affidavits are forthcoming.

ROBBERS KILL OPERATOR.

Winfield, Kan., April 3.—Robbers last night rifled the Santa Fe depot here and shot and killed D. C. Coates, the night operator, in escaping. They secured only a few cents. The killing was evidently committed to prevent identificatiton.

A LYNCHING REPORTED.

Savannah, Ga., April 3.—It is reported that Allen Brookes, the negro who assaulted Mrs. F. W. Harte, a white woman, near Bloomingdale, yesterday, was lynched today near Berryville.

IS IN DUBLIN BAY.

THE ROYAL YACHT NOW LIES OFF KINGSTON.

VICTORIA ACROSS CHANNEL

SHE WILL NOT GO TO DUBLIN UNTIL TOMORROW.

RAIN FALLING IN IRELAND

SEA TRIP MADE AHEAD OF TIME.

Dublin, April 3.—The royal yacht Victoria and Albert, with Queen Victoria on board, arrived at Kingstown at 2 o'clock this afternoon, three and a half hours ahead of the scheduled time, and was greeted with a royal salute from the channel squadron.

Rain has been falling all morning. The royal yacht lay off Kingstown, no one disembarking from her and no one will leave the vessel until tomorrow. Only a handful of persons saw the arrival of her majesty.

ARRIVAL AT HOLYHEAD.

London, April 3.—Queen Victoria, who left Windsor Castle at half past nine last evening en route for Ireland, arrived at Holyhead at 9:10 a. m. today.

The authorities of the place, the officers of the warships in the harbor and a guard of honor, waited the arrival of her majesty. The general public was excluded from the station. When the queen alighted she was presented with the usual address of welcome. She gave her reply to Lord Denbigh, who handed it to the officials. It read:

"I thank you for your royal and dutiful welcome and for your expressions of devotion to my throne and person. The practical and generous sympathy for those who have suffered or who are likely to suffer in consequence of the present war which has been shown by all classes of my subjects has been a great consolation to me during the time of suspense and anxiety through which we are passing. I join in your hearty prayers that peace may soon be restored and that the other blessings of heaven be long continued to my empire and I wish all prosperity to the country you represent."

The queen then walked across the platform leaning on the arm of an Indian attendant, and later embarked on board the royal yacht Victoria and Albert, which, piloted by the Irene and escorted by the royal yacht Osborne and the cruisers Galatea and Australia, steamed out of the harbor for Kingstown.

SWORD-BEARER BALKS.

Dublin, April 3.—The premature arrival of her majesty and the wretched weather were a disappointment to Dublin, as thousands of people had planned to go out to Kingstown. Nevertheless, as soon as the news spread large numbers started for the harbor, while the Duke of Connaught, commander of the forces in Ireland, and Earl Cadogan, the lord lieutenant, also hurried there and later in the afternoon boarded the royal yacht Victoria and Albert, where they greeted the queen.

James Egan, the Dublin city sword-bearer, who for nine years was imprisoned for political offenses, refused today to hand the queen the sword nor would he take part in tomorrow's proceedings. This declination at the last hour caused a sensation, and Lord Mayor Tallon is now looking for another sword-bearer. In a letter to the town clerk, Mr. Egan says:

"I will yield nothing to any Irishman in respect for the individuality of the aged lady, but I cannot join in any act of public courtesy toward the head of a state which has tried me upon charges that were false and sent me to suffer for nine years in English dungeons, the state that still hall-marks me with the degradation of a ticket-of-leave man."

Mr. Egan adds that he is prepared to accept the consequences and hand in his resignation.

When Miss Maud Gonne lectured in this city several years ago, James Egan, who had only recently been released from Portsmouth prison, spoke from the same platform at Library hall. He had been convicted of treason-felony and sentenced for a term of fourteen years, but was released at the expiration of nine years.

CHICAGO VOTING.

GOOD CITIZENS TRYING TO DOWN GANG RULE.

THE CONTEST IS A WARM ONE

WEATHER IS FINE AND BIG VOTE IS GOING IN.

OTHER MUNICIPAL BATTLES

BOSS COX WIPES OUT FUSION IN CINCINNATI.

Chicago, April 3.—A brisk vote was polled early today for the election of aldermen and town officials. Politicians had all along complained of the lack of interest taken in the campaign and were agreeably surprised at the large number of voters who, encouraged by perfect spring weather, visited the voting booth before going to work.

The "reform" element, which has a majority in the present council, began work at the peep of dawn to get their constituents to cast the needful ballots. But they were not more active than the leaders and the rank and file of the so-called "gang."

The traction and other corporate interests have been active throughout the campaign working against the "reform" candidates, who stand for compensation for all public franchises. Thirty-six aldermen are to be elected and assessors, collectors, supervisors and clerks for the various townships.

POLITICS IN NEBRASKA.

Omaha, Neb., April 3.—Municipal elections are being held today in all towns and cities of Nebraska, except Omaha. In the larger cities the issues are political, though local matters are so thoroughly mixed that it can hardly be called a straight political fight. In the smaller towns the liquor license question predominates. In South Omaha, which is generally a democratic stronghold, the fight was political and probably will be an exceedingly lively one. The weather was perfect and a large vote was polled.

FRANCHISE ISSUE FOREMOST.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 3.—Municipal elections were held throughout Wisconsin today. The contest in this city was the most exciting in many years The street railway issue has been the feature of the campaign. The weather early in the day was cloudy and threatening rain but a heavy vote was polled. The city tickets were headed by Mayor David S. Rose, democrat, seeking reelection, against Henry J Baumgartner, republican. Aldermen, supervisors and a county judge were also voted upon.

IN KANSAS CITY.

Kansas City, Mo., April 3.—Fine weather brought out almost the entire vote of the city today A full city ticket was to be selected For mayor P. S. Brown, jr., headed the republican lists, while James Reed led the democrats

MIXED RESULTS IN MICHIGAN.

Detroit, Mich., April 3.—Municipal elections were held in Michigan yesterday, the issues being largely of a local nature. However, lines were closely drawn in the majority of cities between republicans and democrats. Out of thirty elections reported, fourteen were given to the democrats. At Marquette one of the largest votes ever polled took place when Joseph Weidhart, people's candidate, was elected, as well as the entire people's ticket. At Hastings the republicans gain control for the first time in the history of the city, while at Lansing, the capital of the state, democrats are in control for the first time in a score of years. At Grand Haven and Eaton Rapids the democratic regimes were overturned, republicans gaining control.

RESULTS IN OHIO.

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 3.—A summary of the results of the municipal and township elections in Ohio yesterday indicates more republican than democratic gains, but no cause for it is assigned except that the republican factions that have been fighting for years have evidently been getting together and that the democrats have shown more indifference than usual. This applies especially to the larger cities, but there have been republican gains, according to the returns from rural districts and interior towns, that are not thus accounted for. The result in Cincinnati, which on the average plurality, more than reverses the results at the last general election, is attributed to less factional figh[illegible] the republicans and the in[illegible] of the democrats.

In Cleveland, where the factions have been most intense, the result is also decisive. A feature of the day has been the election of Dr. Washington Gladden as a councilman at Columbus, where the question of municipal franchises was a special issue. The writings of Dr. Gladden on labor questions and social and political economy are well known, as well as his work as a pastor and lecturer, and his experiences in a parliament of ward representatives will no doubt attract general attention. The republicans elected their ticket at Toledo, where Mayor Samuel Jones has held sway as an independent factor for years. At Dayton the democrats re-elected Mayor Lindmuth At some interior points the republicans elected officers where they had never elected them before, while there have been no phenomenal gains by the democrats. As local issues were paramount at almost all places, it is difficult to indicate any cause for the drift of public preferences.

The municipal election in this city resulted in a sweeping victory for the straight republican ticket, headed by Julius Fleischman, the young millionaire distiller and horse owner, for mayor. Opposed to this was the fusion ticket, a combination of democrats and republicans who were antagonistic to the rule of George B. Cox, the acknowledged boss of the republicans of this (Hamilton) county The head of the fusion ticket was Alfred M. Cohen.

Fleischman's majority is about 7,000 and the rest of the ticket goes in by from 3,000 to 5,000. A hard fight was made on Thomas J. Noctor for police court clerk. Noctor, not yet twenty-nine years old, dominated the fusion nominating convention and as a leader was considered a dangerous man by all the republicans. The net result of the election is that for the next three years the city will be in the hands of the republicans, who not only will fill all city offices, but will control the board of public service, board of legislation and board of education. The result will also have an important bearing on the state and national elections next fall, as it insures to the republicans a handsome majority in this county.

NEWS OF BASE BALL WORLD

Mansfield outdid every club in the country last season in straight victories. The Haymakers won twenty consecutive games, a record equalled by no other club.

Mansfield has offered to trade Outfielder Flourney to Youngstown for Harry Truby. Oh, my! what troubles there will be in Inter-State cities with Lowney and Truby on the same team.

Manager Finn, of Youngstown, has a fight on his hands to retain Catcher Hess, who has signed with both Youngstown and Omaha. Nick Young has been asked to determine with which team he shall play.

Ed Cramer, editor of a country weekly at Greensburg, Pa., at a salary of $75 a month, has been offered a place as catcher on the Boston team at $75 a week, but has declined. Cramer ranks as the best amateur catcher in Pennsylvania, but does not care to become a professional.

Reach's Base Ball Guide for 1900 has been issued and contains a thorough history of the game for 1899. Thirteen pages are devoted to the statistics of the Inter-State league, which now ranks as one of the solid base ball organizations of the country. In speaking of the little league the compiler and editor of the Guide is quite complimentary.

Pittsburg Post: "Harry Colgan, of Homestead, has again been appointed on President Power's umpire staff. It will be the fourth season that Colgan has officiated in the Inter-State league. This is a splendid record. He is a first-class umpire and only for his modesty, which prevents him from pushing himself forward, should now be in the National league. There are precious few as competent and reliable umpires as he."

Mr. and Mrs. Bedard, of Garrett, are in the city for a few days. Mr. Bedard is here for medical treatment.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Green.—The remains of Freeman R. Green arrived from Washington this evening over the Pennsylvania railroad, and were taken to the home of his mother on West Main street. The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. A. W. Seabrease officiating. Both funeral and interment will be private.

Tieman.—Funeral services of Frederick Tieman will be held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 from the residence, 83 Wall street, and at 2 o'clock from Emanuel's Lutheran church.

BOYS RANG THE FIRE ALARM

BROUGHT INTO COURT BY DETECTIVE COLING.

H. R. Krider Pays a Big Fine for Distributing Obscene Literature—Notes.

During the past few weeks many false alarms of fire have been sounded from boxes in different parts of the city. The police suspected that it was the work of boys and Detective Coling began an investigation which resulted this morning in the arrest of Andrew Dornte, Harold Cowdrey and Stanley Cowdrey. They were charged with having unlawfully sent in fire alarms and after hearing the evidence Mayor Scherer lectured the lads and allowed them to go on a promise of good behavior hereafter.

THIEVES BOUND OVER.

George Harkenrider and John Yates, the young men arrested Monday for stealing brass, etc., from the Wabash yards, were arraigned in police court this morning and entered pleas of not guilty. Mayor Scherer heard the evidence and bound each of them over to the circuit court in the sum of $100.

KRIDER PUNISHED.

Harvey C. Krider was arrested by Detective Coling Monday evening on a charge of passing lewd and indecent cards. Krider is a painter and on the back of his business cards he had printed some very indecent and suggestive language. These cards he distributed promiscuously, the police finally getting hold of some of the cards. When arrested several of the cards were found on his person. Krider told the officers that the cards were distributed indiscriminately at Montpelier and he did not know it was against the law. Mayor Scherer assessed a fine of $25 and costs, amounting in all to $36, and Krider stayed the docket for ninety days.

SINKING A SHAFT.

Contractor Peter is today sinking a shaft at the corner of Harmer and Erie streets. From this shaft he will tunnel both ways. Another gang of men will be put to work immediately.

Progressive pedro was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Anthony Freiburger and Mrs. Edward Gocke, and the consolation was awarded to Mrs. Barney Meyers. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Veheo.

On Monday evening at Christ's Lutheran church Rev. J. L. Motschmann gave an eloquent discourse, the theme of which was "Thinking on the Christ." The speaker lifted his hearers to planes of thought rarely experienced and his familiarity with this subject was evinced by the force of his delivery. The discourse was the beginning of a series to be concluded at Easter. The subject this evening will be "Seekers After Jesus."

ROYAL

Baking Powder

Absolutely Pure

Makes hot-breakfast-breads wholesome—no yeast germs, no alum. Makes cake, biscuit and pastry of superior fineness, flavor and delicacy. Makes food that will keep moist and sweet. Is most economical, because it is the purest and greatest in leavening strength. In the easy, expeditious preparation of the finer cakes and pastries appropriate to the season, Royal is indispensable.

Care must be taken to avoid baking powders made from alum. Such powders are sold cheap, because they cost but a few cents per pound. Not only will they spoil the cake, but alum is a corrosive acid, which taken in food means injury to health.

SERIES EFFECT OF A JOKE.

Binghampton, N. Y., April 2.—As the result of an April fool joke Edith Walrach, of Camden, N. J., who is visiting friends here, is said to be dying. Miss Walrach is nineteen years old and of very nervous temperament. In the family she is visiting is a young practical joker. He procured a small live mouse, which he put in an egg-shell, covering the opening with plaster of Paris. This was brought in with the breakfast, and when Miss Walrach broke the shell and the liberated mouse jumped out she screamed and fainted away. During the day she had three nervous fits, and her physician pronounces her condition critical. The young man is nearly wild with grief, as he and Miss Walrach were shortly to be married.

DOESN'T WANT MUCH.

The Commercial club's committee on manufacturers, together with a number of other prominent citizens, held a conference at the Randall hotel Monday afternoon with L. C. Boyd, of Gas City, with reference to the locating of an iron foundry in Fort Wayne. Mr. Boyd is agent for a party whose name he did not disclose, who would locate in Fort Wayne a plant to employ 150 men provided the city would donate a site and $22,000 for the erection of shop buildings. Mr. Boyd was informed that his conditions were too exacting and nothing was accomplished.

COFFEE VS. PREACHER.

"People Poisoned by Coffee Should Leave It Off."

"I have been a great coffee drinker for years and it has kept me in a bilious condition, with more or less neuralgia, as the result of general ill-health produced by coffee drinking. I have discovered that coffee is a rank poison to my system. Since we have been using Postum Cereal Food Coffee, we not only find it a delightful beverage, with all the good qualities of coffee, but it has none of the injurious effects.

"Any person suffering from nervous troubles, caused by the poison of coffee, should be able to get rid of the sickness in short order if such a one will leave off the cause and take up Postum Food Coffee. There has been no coffee used in our home for a considerable time.

"People who are poisoned by coffee should leave it off, because when one sins against his body, he dishonors God, 'for our bodies are the temples of the Holy Ghost.' It would seem that any one conscious of the bodily distress that coffee brings, would have no trouble in leaving it off when Postum Food Coffee can be secured." Rev. John M. Linn, Pastor M. E. church, South Corpus Christi, Texas.

The Porto Rican tariff bill may pass congress, but it will not pass the people.

Senator Beveridge seems disposed to illustrate the old adage that talk is not costly, but it takes nerve to vote as you talk.

Oom Paul has added largely to his trading stock by the capture of a large detachment of the British Household cavalry and a part of the Tenth Hussars. Britain's bluest blood is now hostage for the Dutch farmers on English prison ships.

When the statistics show that Porto Rico's exports, in February, 1899, were $279,000 and in February, 1900, $78,000, we can hardly blame the people of the island for beginning to think that they need an advance agent of prosperity of their own.

George B. Cox, than whom there is no more vicious political boss in the country, has perfected his title to ownership of the municipal offices of Cincinnati. He "put it up strong" yesterday in order, to doubt, to discourage future fighting against him. With Cox "boss" means boss.

Not being able to follow the monarchial fashion by discovery of prospect of war with somebody else Italy has fallen into line by going to war with herself. There is disorder in the parliament, the people are murmuring with discontent and revolution is in the air. King Humbert has left the capital and the dangerous spirit of unrest grows.

The queen's message of sympathy to the widow of General Joubert stands not only for a personal tribute but voices the feeling of the British people. General Joubert was the one figure on the Boer side that appealed to the generous sympathies of the British. That this is proved by the fact that even the humiliation of Majuba Hill did not affect the admiration with which the commander in that historic affair was regarded. General Joubert never failed to deplore the British loss then occasioned. The thoughful remembrance of his bravery and honor by the queen will do something toward producing a better feeling between the contestants.

Julian Ralph's violent efforts to produce the kind of correspondence his English employers demand lead him into indiscretion. After his strenuous assertions that the Boers are cowards some of his English readers may ask themselves what inference this involves concerning the English who, in proportions of from two to ten times as many as the Boers, have found the latter such tough subjects to handle.

While ex-Speaker Reed continues to withhold anything like an extended expression of his opinion from the enthusiastic interviewers, he is still enjoying himself at their attempts while giving, at the same time, the impression that he could, if he would, say a great deal. When asked in Washington the other day what he thought of President McKinley's repeated changes on the Porto Rican question, he said: "It is impossible for me to criticise the emperor of expediency."

The direct effect of the decision of Attorney General Griggs in the case of Captain McCalla, of the navy, which holds that he was advanced and promoted by implication when the advancement of Lieutenant Commander Pillsbury was confirmed, will be to establish the record that the advancement and promotion of Captain Higginson to be commodore by implication confirmed the advancement of Rear Admiral Schley "for eminent and conspicuous conduct in battle."

The beginning of what many observers have predicted would prove a serious obstacle to Cuban progress is noted in the dispatches from Santiago de Cuba. Owing to the death of the mayor a new election is necessary, and it is said there is a bitter contest on between the white and colored voters. The color line has been closely drawn and it is feared that there will be trouble at the polls. The whites declare that rather than submit to negro domination they will organize an annexation party, though heretofore they have favored independence. Wherever the two races come into contact the world around this race feeling manifests itself. Heretofore it has not played a very important part in Cuban affairs, because the officials have been mostly appointed by Spain. Now that the people rule themselves they have already begun to divide on the color line, and as a considerable portion of the insurgents were colored, and the native party is, in fact, dominated by men of pure or mixed negro blood, the race question is likely to become a burning issue.

THE USHERS' BENEFIT.

The ushers of Masonic Temple can have only felicitation at the success of their first annual benefit, given last evening in the appearance of Robert B. Mantell and his splendid company in "The Dagger and the Cross." Mr. Mantell has been a Fort Wayne favorite for years, but his play was a new one, and the audience was large and representative. There will be few dissenters to the general verdict that "The Dagger and the Cross" is a powerful production, and Mr. Mantell has surrounded himself with a capable and evenly balanced company for its interpretation. Through the entire five acts of the production the interest is well sustained, and there is but the faintest vein of comedy to relieve the tension of the strongly dramatic scenes where love, hate, jealousy, despair and revenge are portrayed in a powerful manner. The applause was generous and evenly distributed, and Mr. Mantell was compelled to come before the curtain in response to his ovation. The force of ushers at Masonic Temple, in whose benefit the performance was given, is made up of Adolph J. Morel, head usher, Harry Pfleiger, Clarence Heckman, George Gillion, Arthur Shumann, Charles Young, Will Young, Frank McCurdy, Arthur Bedward, Tom J. Tolan, Eddie Feustal, Earl Long and Carl Zurmuehlen.

DR. MIVART AND THE CHURCH.

The account given in the daily papers of the position held by Dr George Mivart toward the teachings of the Catholic church tend to mislead. It may be of interest to the public to know on what points of Catholic doctrine St. George Mivart went astray. We should remember that Mr. Mivart was not a theologian. He himself had taken special pains to expressly state this fact, and yet he wantonly dealt with the grave questions of theology—questions that can only be rightly treated by men of long and careful training in theological studies. In every age there appear men such as Dr. Mivart, men who feel the call strong within them to advise the church of Christ—not only to advise her, but to point out to her errors even in doctrine. Instead of trying to fit the church to the age and the spirit of the age, they would do much better in trying to fit themselves to the spirit of that church which is guided by the unchangeable truth—the Holy Spirit.

From the circular letter which Cardinal Vaughn, under whose jurisdiction Dr. Mivart was, sent to his priests we learn the various doctrines on which Dr. Mivart had gone astray:

"Archbishop's House, Westminster, Feast of St. Peter's Chair, 1900.—Rev. Dear Father: Dr. St. George Mivart in his articles entitled 'The Continuity of Catholicism' and 'Some Recent Apologists,' in the Nineteenth Century and the Fortnightly Review for January, 1900, has declared, or at least seemed to declare, that it is permissible for Catholics to hold certain heresies—regarding the virginal birth of our Lord and the pereptual virginity of the Blessed Virgin; the Gospel account of the resurrection and the immunity of the sacred Body from corruption; the reality and transmission of original sin; the redemption as a real satisfaction for the sins of men; the everlasting punishment of the wicked; the inspiration and integrity of Holy Scripture; the right of the Catholic church to interpret the sense of Scripture with authority; her perpetual retention of her doctrines in the same sense; not to speak of other false propositions. As he has thereby rendered his orthodoxy suspect, and has, moreover, confirmed the suspicion by failing, after three notifications, to sign the annexed profession of faith when tendered to him by me, it now becomes my duty to take further action, and I hereby inhibit him from approaching the sacraments, and forbid my priests to administer them to him, until he shall have proved his orthodoxy to the satisfaction of his ordinary.

"Believe me to be, Rev. Dear Father, your faithful and devoted servant.

"Herbert Cardinal Vaughn,
"Archbishop of Westminster.

"P. S.—If it were true, as Dr Mivart asserts, that there were persons calling themselves Catholics who hold any of the above heresies, it would be necessary to remind them that they have ceased in reality to be Catholics, and that if they were to approach the sacaments they would do so sacrilegiously, at the peril of their souls and in defiance of the law of the church.

"Herbert Cardinal Vaughn."

The profession of faith which Dr Mivart was called upon to sign ran as follows:

"I reject and condemn all doctrines which deny the reality and transmission of original sin, and the perfect sufficiency of the atonement by which man is reconciled to God in the blood of Jesus Christ, as false and heretical and contrary to the holy Catholic faith now and at all future time.

"I firmly believe and profess that the souls of men after death will be judged by God, and that those who are saved will 'go into everlasting life' (Matt. xxv, 46), and those who are condemned 'into everlasting punishment.' I reject as false and heretical all doctrines which teach that the souls in hell may eventually be saved, or that their state in hell may be one which is not of punishment. (Cf. constitution of council of Lateran IV.)

"In accordance with the holy councils of Trent and of the Vatican, I receive all the books of the Old and New Testament with all their parts as set forth in the fourth session of the council of Trent, and contained in the ancient Latin edition of the Vulgate, as sacred and canonical—not because, having been carefully composed by mere human industry they were afterward approved by the church's authority, nor merely because they contain revelation with no admixture of error; but because having been written by the inspiration of the Holy Ghost, they have God for their Author and have been delivered as such to the church herself. Wherefore, in all matters of faith or morals appertaining to the building up of Christian doctrine, I believe that to be the true sense of Holy Scripture which our holy mother the church has held and now holds, to whom the judgment of the true sense and interpretation of Holy Scripture belongs. (Cf. council of Trent, session IV; council of the Vatican, Dogmatic Constitution of the Catholic Faith, chap. ii, can. ii.)

"Moreover, I condemn and revoke all other words and statements which in articles contributed by me to the Fortnightly Review and the Nineteenth Century or in any other of my writings, are found to be in matter of faith or morals contrary to the teaching of the holy Catholic faith according to the determination of the Apostolic see, and in all such matters I submit myself to the judgment of the said see, receiving all that it receives and condemning all that it condemns."

If you should ask a practical educated Catholic the reason of Dr. St. George Mivart's sad error, he would answer, "pride," or he would tell you that Dr. Mivart never had Catholic faith, which is a virtue infused by God into our souls by which we believe, without doubting, all those things which God has revealed and proposes by His church to our belief, or if he did possess faith, he lost it through presumption.

Dr. Mivart was without doubt one of the leading lights of the scientific world. He had no equal in the science of biology, but he had many superiors in theology. He did not always think and write as he thought and wrote in the January number of the Nineteenth Century and the Fortnightly Review. Nearly thirty years ago the church received him as her child. He was gifted, but his gifts came from God and in entering the church he merely gave back to God that which belonged to God.

He performed many good works which will plead for him before the throne of judgment. Q.

THE BIMETALLIC UNION ACTS

WILL PUSH THE WORK OF THE CAMPAIGN WITH VIGOR.

Favor Reaffirmation of the 1896 Platform—May Attend State Convention.

Judge W. G. Colerick presided at an important meeting of the Bimetallic Union last evening. The committee on halls reported in favor of leasing the three halls on the third floor of the Tri-State building and it is probable that the club will soon arrange to change its meeting place. Arrangements will also be made with the Jeffersonian League and the Bryan Old Soldiers' club to meet in the new rooms.

Members of the Bimetallic Union are desirous of attending the state convention and Hon. R. C. Bell was named to select a committee of three to act with a committee of the Jeffersonian League and arrange for a special train to the state convention.

The union decided to push the work of the campaign and the executive officers were authorized to address letters to the 119 vice presidents in Allen county requesting them to make a report at least one month before the state convention as to the sentiment in favor of the renomination of Bryan and the reaffirmation of the Chicago platform of 1896. There are more than 900 members of the Bimetallic Union and good results are anticipated from the work inaugurated last evening.

TO IMPROVE CEMETERY.

The stockholders of the Fort Wayne Catholic cemetery met in Library hall on Monday evening for the purpose of electing a new board of trustees and for hearing the annual reports of the officers. Very Rev. John H. Guendling presided. The following trustees were chosen: Messrs. Louis Fox, Edward Gilmartin, Henry C. Berghoff, John B. Reuss, George Jacoby and J. B. Lassus. The annual reports which were read showed that the condition of the association is most satisfactory, much better than the same period last year. The surplus this year is much larger than last year. A number of improvements, which it is proposed to have made in the cemetery this year, were discussed and if the plans which were suggested are carried out the grounds will be greatly beautified. Among other things, it was decided to build a greenhouse in the cemetery and a meeting will be held in the near future to consider plans. On Thursday evening of this week the newly elected board of trustees will hold a meeting, at which time officers will be chosen.

MUNICIPAL NEWS.

CITY PREPARING TO IMPROVE SWINNEY PARK.

BOARD OF WORKS INSPECTS

TWO NEW ENTRANCES TO THE PRETTY RESORT.

WEATHER AFFECTS SIDEWALK

PROPOSITION FROM AMERICAN DISTRICT COMPANY.

The members of the board of works and City Engineer Randall inspected Swinney park this morning for the purpose of determining on improvements to be made in the beautiful summer resort during the summer. It has been decided that a new entrance for pedestrians will be provided at Jefferson street. A broad walk will be constructed and young shade trees will be planted on each side of the walk. No teams will be allowed to drive into the park at this entrance. Later another entrance may be opened at Jones street. Numerous young trees are to be planted about the park and the board of works is determined to make Swinney park one of the cosiest resorts in the west. It is probable that a canopy will be erected over the flowing well also. On the hot summer days when people congregate in crowds about the fountain to get a fresh drink of water it will be more comfortable for them to wait in the shade under a canopy than in the sun.

COMMITTEE OF WHOLE.

The council committee of the whole will meet in the council chamber this evening to discuss the proposed franchise to be granted to the Indiana and Ohio Traction company. The committee on contracts and franchises has submitted its report after a thorough investigation and inquiry and it is believed that there will be few, if any, changes in the report of the committee, although it is understood that some councilmen are not satisfied with the amended franchise. Whatever changes made will be of minor importance.

HARD ON SIDEWALKS.

The open winter just passed has been very hard on sidewalks and complaints are numerous every day as to the condition of walks in different parts of the city. Chairman Eggemann, of the board of works, was on a tour of inspection yesterday and in almost every square visited in the southern part of the city he found defective walks. An order will soon be issued for the immediate repair of all defective walks.

BOARD OF WORKS.

Judge Zollars, representing the American District Telegraph company, made a proposition to the board to pay into the city treasury 2 per cent. of the revenues of the wire service, but the board insisted that the company must pay 2 per cent. of the package delivery and messenger service. No agreement was reached.

The clerk was instructed to notify frescoers and decorators that bids for repainting the city hall would be received one week from next Thursday night.

SPREADS LIKE WILDFIRE.

When things are "the best" they become "the best selling." Abraham Hare, a leading druggist of Belleville, O., writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have handled in 20 years. You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Electric Bitters tones up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, hence cures multitudes of maladies. It builds up the entire system. Puts new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, run-down man or woman. Price 50 cents. Sold by Dreier Bros., druggists.

A SMALL DIVIDEND.

Referee Chapin has declared a dividend of 4 per cent. in the matter of the bankrupt estate of Rudolph Steger. This represents the entire proceeds of the estate which is to be divided among the creditors.

A HORRIBLE OUTBREAK.

"Of large sores on my little daughter's head developed into a case of scald head" writes C. D. Isbill, of Morganton, Tenn., but Bucklen's Arnica Salve completely cured her. It's a guaranteed cure for Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Sores, Ulcers and Piles. Only 25c at Drier Bros.

"To-morrow, and to-morrow, and to-morrow,
Creep on in petty space from day to day
And all our yesterdays have lighted fools
The way of dusky death."

Procrastination is the thief of health as well as the thief of time. There are few things in which procrastination is so much indulged as in letter writing. We mean to write, but "to-morrow and to-morrow creep on" and we neglect it. This is bad enough when the correspondence is social or business in its character, but when it concerns the vital issue of health it is infinitely worse.

This touches you, if you are one of the women who have felt inclined to take advantage of Dr. Pierce's offer of a consultation by letter, free. You have studied the evidence which shows how other women have been cured. You cannot doubt but that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription does cure diseases peculiar to women; irregularity, ulcerations, inflammations, bearing-down pains. You cannot doubt it, because of the force of the testimony of hundreds of thousands of weak women made strong, and sick women made well, and you mean to write—to-morrow.

Write to-day. Your letter will be read in private, its contents guarded as a sacred confidence, and an answer promptly mailed you in a plain envelope without any printing upon it. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"When I wrote you about my ailments I was living in Richland Iowa," writes Mrs. M. Vastine, of 647 South Liberty Street, Galesburg, Ill. "I took six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, four of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and four vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Before I had taken four bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' I was a new woman. I cannot make pen describe my heartfelt gratitude, but will confirm the truth of all I say if those who write inclose stamped envelope for reply."

A True Woman

looks forward to motherhood with more pleasure than dread. But at the same time, there is always a little fear. This should not be. It is not where the expectant mother knows about Mother's Friend. But some do not, for the world is large, and it is those we wish to reach. Mother's Friend is an external liniment. It does away with the danger and pain of childbirth. These are not idle words. They are true, and proved by the testimony of many happy mothers.

HUMANE SOCIETY.

ANNUAL MEETING IS BEING HELD TODAY.

YEARLY REPORTS ARE READ

OFFICERS TO BE ELECTED FOR COMING YEAR.

SPECIAL OFFICER'S REPORT

MR. SCHLAUDROFF REVIEWS HIS WORK.

The annual meeting of the Humane society is being held this afternoon in the offices of A. H. Bittinger, attorney for the Board of Children's Guardians, in the Pixley-Long block Much important business is before the society for consideration and the meeting is of much interest. Reports of the officers of the society were presented and discussed. Officers are to be elected and such other business transacted as shall come before the meeting. The most interesting of the reports presented was that of the society's special officer, L. C. Schlaudroff, as that summarizes just what the society has accomplished during the past year.

SPECIAL OFFICER'S REPORT.

There are many lame horses driven on our streets that would not be lame if they were properly cared for. One cause for lameness, and perhaps the cause of the most of it, is improper shoeing, and allowing the shoes to remain on the feet too long, thereby causing corns to be formed. After the corns are once started many drivers think there can be nothing done for the horses, but let them suffer, and they are expected to go as fast as they did before. This is a mistake. If a veterinary was called as soon as the horse shows lameness and his instructions followed, this difficulty would soon be overcome. A lame horse should not be made go faster than a walk.

Our laws for punishing men who get drunk and then beat their wives or turn their families out of the house, the wife and little children being half fed or clothed, are insufficient. The only way now to punish such men is to make them pay a fine, or if they can't pay, send them to jail. If they pay they have that much less for the family to live on; if they have to go to jail, they cannot earn any money and perhaps lose their jobs. In this way the family again suffers, and perhaps more than he. For such men, after a fair and thorough trial, a good sound thrashing with a rawhide or cat-o'-nine-tails would do more good than a dozen fines and would not harm the family. Many such men go unpunished on this account.

I have taken many packages of clothing to the Relief union and Rescue home, which were donated by kind citizens. Nine days and a half were spent for the County Orphans' home in looking up the homes and surroundings of families who had made applications for children from the home. No charge for this work was made, the orphans' home paying actual expenses, such as railroad fare and livery hire.

I wish to thank T. E. Ellison, attorney for the Humane society, and A. H. Bittinger, attorney for the board of children's guardians, for their kindness in giving valuable advice and time free of charge to our work. I also thank the press of the city for kindly giving publication to our reports.

Louis C. Schlaudroff,
Special Agent.

STRIKE GROWING.

INDIANAPOLIS TROUBLE IS SERIOUS.

BUILDING TRADES ARE OUT

NUMBER OF MEN RENDERED IDLE IS UNKNOWN.

MINERS' STRIKE SPREADING

PENNSYLVANIA TROUBLE IS VERY GRAVE.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 3 -- Nearly all the building trades in Indianapolis are now affected by strikes. Carpenters, plumbers, hodcarriers and bricklayers were out today, but an accurate estimate of the number of men is as yet impossible. The trouble was precipitated by the going into effect of the 1900 wage scale.

Employers and employes appear anxious to settle the difficulties that have arisen, and it is believed that the men will be at work in a few days.

All the union hodcarriers in the city, about 400 in number, went out on strike today, and as a consequence all the bricklayers belonging to the local union were obliged to quit work Building is almost at a standstill.

COAL STRIKE SPREADS.

Pittsburg, April 3.--Reports received today from the coal mines in the Pittsburg district indicate that the strike inaugurated yesterday against the dead work scale and the run of mine rate has assumed larger proportions than at first expected. Few mines are in operation and fully 20,000 miners are idle. No provisions were made for the strike and if it should continue for a week it is likely that every mill in the Pittsburg district depending on the two coal combinations for their supply of coal will have to shut down. There is less than a week's supply of coal in the Pittsburg harbor.

The strikers are determined, but the officials of the coal companies expect to effect a settlement before the end of the week. There is no change in the situation at Irwin. The miners are generally out and the pits are idle.

LINTON MINES CLOSED.

Linton, Ind., April 3.—All the coal mines have been closed and 1,100 miners are idle. The failure of the operators and miners to reach an agreement on the weekly pay and powder questions caused the tie-up.

THE HOUSE HABIT.

"When I asked Mr. Emerson's friends if we were not going up into the grove to camp the said: 'No, it would never do to lie out in the night air,'" says John Muir in the Atlantic. "'Mr. Emerson might take cold and you know, Mr. Muir, that would be a dreadful thing.' In vain I urged that only in homes and hotels were colds caught, that nobody ever was known to take cold camping in these woods, that there was not a single cough or sneeze in all the Sierra. Then I pictured the big climate-changing, inspiring fire I would make, praised the beauty and fragrance of sequoia flame, told how the great trees would stand about us transfigured in the purple light, while the stars looked down between the great domes; ending by urging them to come on and make an immortal Emerson night of it.

"But the house habit was not to be overcome, nor the strange dread of pure night air, though it is only cooled day air with a little pure dew in it. So the carpet dust and unknowable reeks were preferred. And to think of this being a Boston choice! Sad commentary on culture and the glorious transcendentalism!"

DISPENSED WITH BLACKSMITH.

"Up at my camp near the Four Peaks," told Jim Bark, the well-known cattleman, "the boys are all handy with a rifle. We've a lot of guns up there. The old-fashioned black-powder Winchester has been discarded and nothing but the best goes. Most of the new guns were bought during the Spanish war, when we would experiment all day with tree trunks and rough trenches learning the art of war at home. We found that a bullet from one of the new Winchesters, driven by smokeless powder was good for four feet and more of pine timber, and for more than an inch of iron. I thought the boys had done about everything in the shooting line that could be done long ago, but I was mistaken.

"I sent them up a wagon. In hauling down some firewood they broke the bolsters all to flinders. The bolsters hold up the wagon bed, you know. Well, the boys figured out all right the rebuilding of the wooden parts, but came near being stumped on the iron fixings. They got some old iron wagon tires and cut them in proper lengths, but hadn't a way that they could see to punch the necessary bolt holes. Finally the question was solved. One of the boys carefully marked the places for the bolts, stood the pieces of tire against a tree and put a bullet, .30 calibre, through the tire at each place marked. It was a novel sort of blacksmithing, but it worked."—Arizona Graphic.

TRETMAN FINED.

Albert Tretman, the aged man who has been making much work for the Associated Charities this winter, was arrested on a charge of failing to send his child to school as required by law. Although the family has resided here less than four months, the parents have been in the courts several times. 'Squire France assessed a fine against Tretman and supposed he would go to jail, but the old man asked the constable to wait awhile and he sent out of the court room and raised money with which to pay his fine.

GETTING IN TOUCH.

The nine bishops of the Anglican church in India have issued a liberal-minded pastoral letter in which they acknowledge with gratitude the many instances of sympathy and support they have received from non-Christians, and they urge churchmen, while steadfast in their own faith and striving for unity, to disclaim for themselves and deprecate in others the intention or the right to say any word that may cause just offense to Hindoos, Mohammedans or Buddhists.—Chicago Tribune.

MR. REED'S DOWNFALL.

A good story is told in West Virginia involving two of the congressmen from that snug little state and Thomas B. Reed, the gigantic speaker of the last house. The two West Virginians are Hon. Blackburn B. Dovener and Hon. Romeo Hoyt Freer. Both are small in stature and wonderfully alike in their general appearance. Together they went up to the ponderous Maine statesman to be introduced.

"Humph!" said Mr. Reed, "is that the best the Persimmon state can do?"

"What do you mean?" asked Mr. Freer.

"Nothing," drawled the elephantine speaker. "I was only wondering at the uniformity of things down your way. I suppose the horses are all ponies and the persimmons all dwarfs ——."

"Well," interrupted Mr. Freer, "there is one thing in our favor, the persimmon has more taste than the pumpkin."

The laugh was on the speaker, and he acknowledged it by cordially grasping the hands of the Lilliputians and joining in the merriment.—Success.

RAISED THE MINISTERS' FEE.

Relating his experiences as "A Missionary in the Great West" Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady tells of two weddings in the same town on the same day—one in the morning and one in the afternoon—at which he officiated: 'The first wedding fee I received was $10—a very large remuneration for the place and people After the second wedding the best man called me into a private room and thus addressed me: 'What's the tax, parson?' 'Anything you like, or nothing at all,' I answered. I have frequently received nothing 'Now,' said he, 'we want to do this thing up in proper shape, but I have had no experiences in this business and do not know what is proper. You name your figure.' I suggested that the legal charge was $2. 'Pshaw!' he said, 'this ain't legal. We want to do something handsome.' 'Go ahead and do it,' I said, whereupon he reflected for a moment or two and then asked me how much I had received for the wedding of the morning. 'Ten dollars,' I replied. His face brightened; here was a solution to the difficulty. 'I'll see his ante,' he remarked, 'and raise him $5,' whereupon he handed me $15."—Ladies' Home Journal.

GROOM SENT WORD

THAT HE WOULD NOT BE ON HAND FOR MARRIAGE.

PARSON AND GUESTS THERE

A KOKOMO LAD STOOD TWIXT LAND AND LOVE.

DECIDED TO TAKE THE FARM

CASE OF SUSPECTED SMALL POX IN PERU.

Kokomo, Ind., April 3.—The marriage of Miss Blanche Unger, of Middlefork, and Harris Jacoby, of Geetingsville, should have occurred at the former place Monday night. A large number of guests were invited, Rev. Mr. Prentice was present to perform the ceremony, a wedding feast was spread, and the youths of the village had gathered at the school house to "bell" the newly-wedded pair, after the village custom. However, Jacoby sent word that he would not appear, the guests and preacher were dismissed, and the marriage was declared off. The only reason offered by the prospective bridegroom for his action is, as said, that his marriage at this time would deprive him of a chance to secure a farm that he expected to get from his father. The Jacobys are wealthy farmers of Clinton county. Miss Unger is a daughter of Martin Unger, and is well connected in this and clinton counties. Jacoby is said to be at school at Terre Haute.

THE BULLET FLEW WILD.

Goshen, Ind., April 3.—George R McMasters, a member of the Goshen Novelty and Brush Manufacturing company, was shot and badly wounded while walking at a point 100 yards distant from where John Winters and Cyphas Messick were engaged in target practice. The shot was fired by Messick, who did not see McMasters, his bullet missing its aim. The ball struck Mr. McMasters in the right lung, lodging near his shoulder blade.

BURNED THE MORTGAGE.

Auburn, Ind., April 3.—At the Methodist church here Sunday, preceding the sermon, Rev. Mr. Guild conducted an impressive and happy ceremony. In the presence of a large audience Albert Robbins, of the Farmers' bank, marked "Paid in full" across a $3,000 mortgage, which was placed over the beautiful edifice nine years ago. The document was then destroyed.

MEASLES EPIDEMIC.

Wabash, Ind., April 3.—There are fifty cases of measles in this city, as reported by Health Officer Lorin W. Smith, who says the disease is spreading rapidly. Some of those afflicted with the disease are very ill.

CASE OF SMALL POX AT PERU.

Peru, Ind., April 3.—Considerable excitement was caused here today by the discovery that Clarence Fetro, a freight conductor of this city, has been stricken with small pox. The house is under quarantine.

NORTHERN INDIANA NOTES.

A wild animal, presumably a mink, ran amuck in the pigeon lofts of George Sheppard, at Portland, killing birds valued at $30.

Elza Hammond, a farmer residing near Mentone, while cutting timber, was caught by a falling tree and crushed to the ground. His injuries are very serious.

Counterfeit silver, in dollars and halves, is very plentiful in Wabash stores, and is giving the dealers much trouble. The pieces are amateurish in appearance and finish.

At the ninth hour, William Berk, of Liberty township, Wabash county, who was applying for a liquor license influenced sixty-eight remonstrators to withdraw and in this way won his point.

Noble township citizens, of Wabash county, have petitioned the county commissioners to order a special election for the purpose to vote a subsidy of $20,000 to the Wabash River Traction company.

Mrs. Moulton, of Three Rivers, Mich., has arrived at Westville, in Laporte county, making charges against her son-in-law, Rev. Mr. Stewart, whose wife recently died of blood poisoning.

Two green goods men caught Finley Meyers, a Portland storekeeper for $800 at Richmond on Saturday. They sold him what purported to be $3,000 in "bills printed from stolen plates," and when he opened the package he found it to contain excelsior.

Judge Biggs, of the Kosciusko circuit court, fined Moses Berkeypile, a wealthy farmer of that county $100 in each instance where Berkeypile made false statement to the assessor as to his personal property for taxation, and also ordered that personal property be added to the tax duplicate against Berkeypile to the amount of $2,330 for the year 1898, and $2,490 for the year 1899.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, April 3.—Opening prices at the stock exchange showed concessions from yesterday's close. Special weakness in individual stocks, coupled with lower prices from London, prompted selling. Federal steel sold off 3⅜c on a scale down with 7,000 shares changing hands. Sugar lost a point, but other losses were small.

Several prominent stocks were bid up sharply in an effort to check the decline. Substantial recoveries were made by federal steel and sugar and St. Paul and Anaconda were notably strong. The advances, however, were short-lived, as the improved level brought out more abundant offerings and the entire list gave way to the lowest.

Federal steel broke to 49c. The market hardened again before 11 o'clock, but became dull at the rally.

The market continued dull and price changes were narrow until near noon, when a rise of 3¾ points in Baltimore & Ohio common and over a point in the preferred stiffened the list.

Bonds were steady and quite a large curtailment in the demand.

THE MONEY MARKET.

THE ASSOCIATED CHARITIES.

Secretary Mohler has prepared his monthly report of the work of the Associated Charities, which is as follows: There were fifty-two applications for relief, fifteen of which were new; thirty-two were resident families with children and eight were non-residents; thirty-one investigations were made and fifteen applicants were found to be not in need. eight were offered work in the labor yard and three accepted; three women were offered work in the sewing room; three persons were found temporary places of employment and one secured permanent employment. Sixty-one calls were made from the secretary's office; there were 209 telephone calls and 191 persons called at the secretary's office. In the families applying for aid were eighty-eight adults and 118 children, a total of 206 persons.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of Westminster Presbyterian church was held on Monday evening in the church, F. W. Antrup acting as chairman. The following officers were elected: Trustees, F. W. Antrup and Alexander Baxter; finance committee, J. E. Tennent, Dr. W. R. Wenger. B. W. Evans and E. S. Moses. Charles S Bash was re-elected treasurer of the church. Messrs. F. Cutshall and Howenstein were elected an auditing committee. The annual reports of the officers were read and showed that the financial status of the church was good. Reports were also read from the Sunday school, Christian Endeavor society. Social circle, Women's Home and Foreign Missionary societies, Children's Mission band and Junior Christian Endeavorers. Within a few months a large installment of the church debt will be paid, the exact amount of which will be decided later. A number of other business matters of interest in the church were discussed during the meeting.

BOUGHT THE PLANT

GENERAL ELECTRIC ABSORBS THE SIEMENS-HALSKE

NEWS CREATES EXCITEMENT

IT MAY AFFECT FORT WAYNE ADVANTAGEOUSLY.

NEWS OF THE SHOP AND RAIL

AN AGED STATION AGENT AT ABOITE RETIRES.

According to a story from New York, told in a special telegram last night to the Chicago Tribune, the Siemens-Halske Electric company has been absorbed by the General Electric company. This is a bit of news that will cause no little consternation in Fort Wayne and a confirmation or denial will be anxiously awaited. Should it prove correct, the probabilities are that either the Chicago or the Fort Wayne works will suffer, for the General Electric company may find it unprofitable to maintain both up to the present standard. The Sentinel is inclined to the belief that if one of the establishments is abandoned in part or in full, it will not be the one in this city, because Fort Wayne offers inducements in the way of competent and contented labor that cannot always be found in the larger cities. Not that skilled labor is cheaper here than elsewhere, but mechanics are more reliable and industrial conditions are free from the discontent and disturbance that mark those of the Windy City. Another reason why Fort Wayne may be favored is the fact that the works here are well managed and have yielded a handsome dividend on the money invested. Mr. Wood, the general manager, has been encouraged in every way and at the present time is increasing the facilities of the shops by adding a lot of new machinery. Last week a japanning machine for preparing the material used in the construction of armature cores was put in operation. This machine accomplishes in two hours what it required two or three days for two boys with brushes to perform. Today there arrived at the works a "bull-dozer" for the blacksmith department, which will be employed in making magnets, heading bolts, etc., and other machinery is en route here to be used in the machinery and other departments The General Electric company, which acquired the Fort Wayne plant a year ago, was organized in New York on April 15, 1892. The Siemens-Halske company was organized in 1895, when it purchased the Grant Locomotive works in Cicero, a suburb of Chicago, and converted them into electric works. The New York dispatch referred to in the foregoing reads as follows:

"The General Electric company, of New York, has secured control of the Siemens-Halske Electric company of America, the stock of the latter corporation having been bought by the individual stockholders in the General Electric. The Siemens-Halske company will be conducted independently for a time, but eventually will be merged into the General Electric corporation. This merging of interests will leave only two companies in the field, the General Electric and the Westinghouse company, but a working contract is in existence between the two, preventing any friction or encroachment by either on the field of the other. The General Electric company is dominated by the Pierpont Morgan interests. The Siemens-Halske company was sold about a year ago to the Widerner-Elkins combination, which bought the company in order to manufacture its own electrical supplies in its own factory. It is understood that with the sale of the Siemens-Halske plant the Widener-Elkins people have retained a guarantee of a favorable contract, running a long time, by which they will be protected. The plan on the part of the General Electric company to secure the control of the rival concerns has been on foot for ten months. It is understood that Chicago directors of the Siemens-Halske company are now on their way to this city."

GRAND ARMY RATES.

A rate of one fare has been made by the lines in the passenger department of the trunk line association for the Grand Army encampment at Chicago in August, says the Indianapolis Journal. This is practically equivalent to the rate of one cent a mile by the lines represented in the Central Traffic association. The lines west of Chicago have made a rate of one and one-half cents. All the associations have made more strict regulations as to the fares for committees, bands, etc, than have been en[illegible] in other years. The lines, like the other lines, will recognize bands as entitled to a special rate only when in uniform.

A NEW ENGINEER.

This morning C. Braitwaith assumed the position of enigneer at the Wabash shops, succeeding George Lamb, who will return to firing on the railway. Mr. Braitwaith was employed for several years as an engineer in the road service of the Nickel Plate and is said to be an excellent man in that line of work.

HEALTH CONDITIONS BETTER.

The pleasant weather today has brought about a better condition at the railways than prevailed there for several days previous. This morning twenty-two engineers and firemen, who had been on the absentee list, chiefly on account of sickness, reported for duty and the new names on the list were not as numerous as on previous lists. They are: Engineer L. M. Pfeiffer and Firemen Frank Wright, C. E. Larkin and J. F. Gaskins, sick, and Engineers Clarence Misner and U. G. Rhodes off duty because of sickness in their families. In the shops the new names on the sick list were Valentine Berger, Jule Henry, William Long and Jerry Conners, while a much larger number who had been on the sick list reported for duty. Included in this list are Engine Inspector Blank, who was sick; Boilermaker B. L. Larimore, who was injured, and Louis Miller, boilermaker, who was sick.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

G. F. Cannic, of the Wabash blacksmith shop, is sick.

M. S. Willson, of the electric works, is off duty on account of the sickness of his wife.

Engineer Levi Larimore, of the Nickel Plate, is off duty on account of sickness.

Nickel Plate Firemen C. Jerome, A. Kocher and H. Mansfield are on the sick list.

T. E. Short, the Nickel Plate engineer, is on the Kankakee marshes, shooting ducks.

The little son of William Seabold, of the electric works, has recovered from a severe illness.

Walter Newman, a steamfitter went to Peru yesterday to do some work for the Wabash company.

Nickel Plate Engineer George Chartier has gone to Valparaiso to attend a funeral of a relative.

Ed. Keifer, a carpenter employed on the Bash building, has a new son, who put in an appearance last night.

Brakeman A. G. Rosenberg, of the Nickel Plate, is duck hunting on the marshes and ponds near Knox, Ind.

Fireman James Godfrey, of the Nickel Plate, is kept from his work on the road by the sickness of his wife.

J. E. Smith, of the Wabash shops who has been visiting in Springfield, will return to his duties in the blacksmith department tomorrow.

W. E. Paul, of the Pittsburg planing mills, left this morning over the Wabash road for New Orleans, where he will sojourn about two weeks.

Cyrus Fike, the transfer man, is disabled temporarily by a lame back. The injury was received through an attempt to handle alone a 400-pound trunk.

Yesterday J. E. Gould, formerly with the Panhandle shops at Dennison, took the position of master mechanic of the Cincinnati Southern at Chattanooga.

Master Mechanic B. Fitzpatrick and Master Car Builder J. A. Graham, of the Pittsburg, left at noon today for Columbus, Ohio, on business for the company.

A. A. Sanders, for six months a switchman in the Nickel Plate yards, has gone into the through freight service and has been assigned to Conductor Pierce's crew.

Chief Dispatcher W. H. Tigar and Dispatcher M. E. Tuttle, of the Pittsburg, are today out on the west end of the road, conferring with operators and inspecting their offices.

Peter Harris, employed in the section department of the Pittsburg, under Foreman James O'Leary, has taken a two weeks' leave of absence to attend to some private affairs.

Mr. Ehringer, the blacksmith who had a foot injured a few days ago at the Wabash shops, is improving, though the member is still very sore and will keep him from work some time.

Sylvester McMahon, the well known passenger conductor on the Pittsburg road, is out again after a three weeks' attack of the grip, the second since the holidays. Mr. McMahon is anxious to resume his run on the road and may take his train out tomorrow.

E. J. Hollman, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, is possessed of the attributes of a good soldier. Yesterday the little finger of his left hand was lacerated severely, a portion of the end being cut off, but he continued at work, stopping only long enough to have the wounded digit wrapped in a cloth.

Ed. McDonald, assistant road foreman of engines of the Pittsburg, has gone to Valpar[illegible] to attend [illegible] of a [illegible] Mr. [illegible] was for many years prominently identified with the business interests of that city. Engineer Peter Carter is also a relative of the deceased and will attend the funeral.

The Sells Bros.' circus, in four sections, passed over the Panhandle on Friday. Fifty of the cars were just out of the shops and made a handsome procession.

The father of Theodore Vandivort, a well known civil engineer in the service of the Pennsylvania, has just passed his ninety-second birthday, and the event was celebrated at his home in New Castle last week.

A caller at the Kerr Murray works yesterday was B. A. Bixby, of Decatur, Ill., who is the general manager of the Decatur Gas and Electric company. The Kerr Murray company is about to put in some gas machinery at Decatur.

The magnificent union station in St. Louis will have a diminutive counterpart on exhibition at the Paris exposition this summer. The object is to direct attention to St. Louis, where the world's fair is to be held in 1903.

Thomas Graffe, a son of Fred Graffe, is now night messenger at the Grand Rapids and Indiana offices. He is an intelligent and ambitious lad and the reader must expect to soon learn of his promotion to more important positions.

Western roads are voting on a proposition to grant rates of one fare plus $2 to the international convention of the Baptist Young People's union of America, to be held in Cincinnati July 10 to 13. It is expected that 14,000 will attend.

Supt. J. B. McKim, of the Pennsylvania, is en route to California, where he will sojourn for a few weeks in hope of receiving physical benefits. Mr. McKim suffered an attack of grip two months ago and his health has been poor since.

Brakemen F. J. Galligher and T. H. Gallivan are off duty, the former on account of sickness. Brakeman C. M. Tindell is disabled by a sprained wrist. Brakemen A. F. and E. M. Young have reported for work after being on the sick list. All are Nickel Plate employes.

The Kerr Murray works have completed the shipment of machinery and material for the big gas plant the company is installing at Darby, Pa., the seventh and last carload leaving the works yesterday. Over 600,000 pounds of metal were used in making the gas holder.

The Western New York and Pennsylvania will shortly increase the wages of its men 5 per cent., placing them on a basis in effect years ago. An increase of 5 per cent. was ordered by President De Coursey some time ago, and he promised to return to the old scale when the earnings warranted it.

On Thursday when the different immigrant parties bound for the northwest were concentrated at St. Paul fifty tourist sleeping cars were required to transport them to their destination. Included in the party were a number of persons from Adams and Jay counties, who passed through this city a week ago.

It is stated that President Truesdale has under consideration the recommendation from both traffic departments of a readjustment of salaries in favor of the employes of the Lackawanna. This advance will affect all general officers and all assistants, including clerks, and it will soon be put in effect. This step was inaugurated three months ago.

The Ladies' auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen expect a big crowd in attendance upon their "hard-time" social Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Lichtenwalter, No. 320 South Calhoun street. Some of the costumes will be marvels in construction. Every participant or spectator is assured a good time.

Robert Mantell, the actor, has a bull dog; so has Miss Russell, one of the actresses in the Mantell company. This morning the canines got into a fight at the south depot and created quite an excitement there. Mr. Mantell and Miss Russell each rushed to the rescue of their pets and by vigorous pulling managed to separate them, but not before both of the dogs were injured.

Jacob Hill, the aged station agent for the Wabash at Aboite, has retired from that position and R. B. Cameron has succeeded him. The company found it necessary to put a telegraph operator at Aboite, and as the station is not a very important one, the offices of agent and operator were combined and Mr. Cameron sent there to fill the place. Aboite's chief industry is making charcoal. The surrounding country is also well adapted to grass and vast quantities of hay are shipped from Aboite.

Frank Greer, timekeeper in the transportation department of the Pittsburg, is one of the many firm believes in the efficacy of the advertising columes of The Sentinel. Several months ago Mr. Greer lost a valuable ring and placed a notice in The Sentinel. A gentleman who does not care to have his name mentioned found the ring a day or two ago at the edge of the sidewalk, where it had lain ever since it dropped from the owner's finger, and recalling to mind the "lost" notice, he returned the [illegible] Mr. Greer, who had given up [illegible] of [illegible] it.

ANOTHER SPANISH LETTER.

Paul E. Wolf is in receipt of a letter from a man in Madrid, Spain, who purports to be a relative of Mr. Wolt, and the missive is very simitar to that received some time ago by John B. Monning. It is written on the same kind of paper, in much the same chirography, but bears the signature of Louis Semper Wolf instead of Louis Semper Monning. It sets forth a tale of woe similar to the appeal to Mr. Monning, claiming relationship; the writer is in prison; has a fortune which he desires to give to his daughter, but cannot secure it and wants Mr. Wolf's assistance, promising a fourth of the entire amount as a reward for the interest of the American relative. The country appears to have been pretty thoroughly sprinkled with these missives, and while nobody seems able to explain the modus operandi of the transaction contemplated, all are united in the belief that it is a gigantic swindle of some sort. None of the gentelmen addressed have any relatives in Madrid.

A LIFE COMPANION

And a Very Undesirable One.

With thousands of people in this climate catarrh is a constant and life long companion; it gets better at times, but each year becomes gradually deeper seated and after a time the individual resigns himself to it as a necessary evil.

Catarrh cures are almost as numerous as catarrh sufferers, but are nearly all so inconvenient and ineffective as to render their use a nuisance nearly as annoying as catarrh itself.

It would seem at first glance that catarrh being a disease of the mucous membrane that salves, sprays, etc., being applied directly to the membranes would be the most rational method, but this has proven not to be true.

The mucous membrane is made and repaired from the blood and catarrh is a blood disorder, and a remedy to be permanent must act on the blood and when purified from Catarrhal poison the secretions from the mucous membrane will become natural and healthy.

There are a number of excellent internal remedies for catarrh, but probably the best and certainly the safest is a new remedy composed of Eucalyptol, Hydrastis, Sanguinaria and other catarrh specifics. This remedy is in tablet form, pleasant to the taste and sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and anyone suffering from catarrh may use these tablets with absolute assurance that they contain no cocaine nor poisonous minerals whatever.

A leading druggist in Cleveland, speaking of catarrh cures, says, "I have sold various catarrh cures for years, but have never sold any which gave such general satisfaction as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. They contain in a pleasant, concentrated form all the best and latest catarrh remedies and catarrh sufferers, who have used douches, sprays and salves, have been astonished at the quick relief and permanent results obtained after a week's use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

INITIATE ONE HUNDRED.

Wayne tent, No. 54, K. O. T. M., will initiate about 100 members into the order on May 3. Committees have been at work for several weeks securing applications and the result is that they have over seventy and expect to have the full number by teh date set for the festivities. Wayne tent is fourth in strength of organization in the state, having 314 members, and the addition of 100 members will put them in second place. A number of the supreme officers will be present on the festive occasion and it will be made one of the chief events in the history of the organization. A smoker and pedro party will be given by the lodge on Thursday evening, when the prospective members will have an opportunity to become acquainted with present members.

The Samaritans of the World will initiate eight candidates Friday evening, at which time a number of the supreme officers will be present. H. S. Chester, supreme secretary, and H. E. Stevens, chairman of the senate, will address the meeting.

MILLIONS GIVEN AWAY.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern which is not afraid to be generous. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles and have the satisfaction of knowing it has cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, LaGrippe and all Throat, Chest and Lung diseases are surely cured by it. Call on Dreier Bros., druggists, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

Call on H. A. Kirchefer for interior decoration; old houses made new; new houses beautified; wall hangings in artistic designs. 15 Arcade.

ABOUT LIQUIFIED AIR.

In the rooms of the Commercial club Monday evening E. J. Richards, manager for Indiana of the Tripler Liquid Air company, addressed a number of local capitalists and members of the Commercial club on liquified air, and explained the methods of business followed by the Tripler company, of New York. The meeting was called to order by C. R. Lane, the local agent, who described the process by which the air is liquified and the many uses to which it can be put. An address was made by Alexander Johnson, superintendent of the feeble minded institute. Mr. Johnson explained that while the stock of the parent company in New York could be disposed of to a few of the wealthy men in the east, it would require a much longer time to reach the rest of the country by that method than the company is rapidly doing by the present method. Mr. Richards explained the system of organization of the parent company and the standing of the moneyed men constituting the officers of the company. He stated that the Tripler company would own and control all the foreign plants, and the money raised from the sale of the 100,000 shares recently taken up would be devoted to the erection of a plant in New York city, the work on which would begin shortly. Mr. Richards stated that the plant in Indianapolis would cost between $150,000 and $200,000 and it will contain machinery capable of producing 2,000 gallons of liquid air per day. Mr. Richards was asked by C. R. Higgins if an ammonia ice making plant could be easily turned into a liquid air plant and he states that it could be done with comparatively small cost. A number of those present at the meeting subscribed for stock and the number of shares now taken is about eighty. Mr. Richards stated that Professor Boehrich would make a demonstration in the city in a short time.

To My Customers and Friends.

Thursday Morning, April 5th

will resume my old connection with the Foster Furniture and Carpet company, of this city. Any favors you may show me, either in purchasing goods yourselves, or in sending your friends to me, who have Furniture and Carpets to buy, I shall greatly appreciate. As has always been my custom, I shall be ever ready to assist you in any way I can, representing goods to you just as they are, and endeavoring to serve you honestly, faithfully and promptly.

Very respectfully,

Charles A. Feistkorn.

Referring to the above, we voice not only our own sentiments, but also those of our customers, when we express our satisfaction at having Mr. Feistkorn again with us. He will have charge of our fine Carpet salesroom in conjunction with Mr. Studor, Mr. Smith and Mr. Mausbaum. Thus manned, our Carpet Department will this spring further outclass all competition than ever before. Mr. Samuel J. Betz will remain at the head of our Carpet laying force and Miss Louisa Berning will continue in charge of the making rooms.

Certainly no firm in the city is so well equipped for doing the Carpet business so promptly, so well, and so entirely to the satisfaction of its patrons.

EASTER CLOTHES.

The immense stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and Top Coats which we show, is a surprise to those who were unacquainted with the volume of goods we have always carried. We have done a large business in our GOING OUT OF BUSINESS SALE, and we will have to do lots more before our enormous stock is depleted. Easter will soon be here. You will want

A New Suit or Top Coat.

Your boys will also need new suits. Let us sell them to you and save you at least one-third. You may expect to spend but a few dollars, and get along with a cheap suit, but if you come here your few dollars will buy you a fine suit. Swell, snappy styles in children's suits for at least one-third less than regular prices.

Low Prices on Confirmation Suits.

Everything must be sold. We are going to quit business and you are the gainer.

PLANS UNDERWAY

FOR A NEW GROCERY HOUSE IN FORT WAYNE.

B. W. SKELTON AT ITS HEAD

STOCK COMPANY WILL PROBABLY BE FORMED.

NEW CAPITAL IS INTERESTED

OUTLOOK REGARDED AS VERY ENCOURAGING.

B. W. Skelton, the well-known grocer whose large establishment was destroyed by the floods of water used in fighting the fire in the Imperial waist factory at Columbia and Harrison streets a few weeks ago, is now working upon a project to establish another large retail grocery house in Fort Wayne.

When seen by a reporter for The Sentinel this morning Mr. Skelton admitted this much, but stated that while the project was receiving much substantial encouragement, he was not at present in position to give out any details of the new organization proposed, nor to name any of the gentlemen who will be associated with him.

It is known, however, that the plans are for a substantial stock company, amply capitalized, and made up of men with a practical knowledge of business affairs, who will give to the new association the advantage of careful business training and a familiarity with the requisites of such an institution in Fort Wayne. Mr. Skelton has already interested a number of persons of ample means, and it is believed that a few days will see all details completed. But little thought has as yet been given to the location to be secured, except the decision that the location will be a central one and that the stock to be carried will be commensurate with the city's needs in this direction.

IS A CANDIDATE.

Friends of Hon J W. Hayden, of this city, make the announcement that he is a candidate for republican presidential elector for the Twelfth district. A. L. Robbins, of Auburn, also has aspirations in this direction, but it is pointed out that the northern counties have a number of candidates for lieutenant governor, and it is probable Allen county will be given the place on the electoral ticket.

MAY DISRUPT A TRUST.

M. L. Jones, the dealer in photographic supplies, went to Chicago this morning to participate in the movement which he hopes will result in the disruption of the dry-plate trust. Mr. Jones while in Chicago will also confer with parties who are anxious to engage in the manufacture of an oval photographic print trimmer, upon which he recently received letters patent. This trimmer can be placed on the market at $5 and it performs the work for which it was designed better and quicker than the next best trimmer in existence, which is a complicated affair that cannot be sold for less than $15. Mr. Jones anticipates a big demand for his trimmer.

LAY DELEGATES GO.

The lay delegates from the Fort Wayne M. E. churches leave tomorrow for Elkhart to attend the conference. They are as follows: Wayne street church, A. S. Coverdale; Berry street church, Dr. C. B. Stemen; Simpson church, Dr. William Enslen; Trinity church, Mr. Disbro; St. Paul's church, Mr. Downing.

ELECTED OFFICERS.

At a meeting of the trustees of the Allen county orphans' home, held Tuesday afternoon, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: President, T. E. Ellison; vice-president, Mrs. S. M. Foster; treasurer, J. D. Bond; secretary, E. J. Woodworth.

TO GIVE A FAIR.

At the meeting of the men of the Cathedral congregation, which was held Tuesday evening, it was decided to give a fair in Library hall in the middle of May. Messrs. W. P. Breen, John B. Reuss, James T. Callahan, W. A. Fleming, Henry Beadell and George Ohneck were appointed a committee of arrangements. The fair will probably last two weeks.

LOCAL LINES.

Dr. Maurice Rosenthal will return this evening from a business trip to Chicago.

Will Keyser has taken a position as messenger in the offices of the Fort Wayne Trust company.

Judge John Morris left today for Auburn, where he appears in an injunction suit in the DeKalb circuit court.

Miss Mariam Morey, the milliner has gone to Delphi, Ind., to serve as head trimmer in a large millinery establishment during the early summer months.

Revival services are being held at the Heidelberg church. These services are preparatory to the reception of new members and communion on Easter Sunday. Last evening Rev. H. A. Welker, of Bluffton, preached. On Thursday evening Rev. Ruhl, of Salem's Reformed church, will preach. Rev. String, of Bluffton, will preach on Friday evening.

The Ladies' union of Simpson M. E. church met on Tuesday afternoon and elected the followning officers: Mrs. John C. Werman, president; Mrs. J. W. Hickman, first vice-president; Mrs. W. A. ROBERTS' DISASTER HARD TO SWALLOW IN LONDON.

REPORTS DO NOT IMPROVE

MATTERS FROM A BRITISH POINT OF VIEW.

BOERS PROTECTING RETREAT WITH THE ARTILLERY.

London, April 3.—Fuller news of the disaster to the British army in the neighborhood of Sannas Post does not tend to improve matters from a British point of view, but, with the despatches so mystifying it is impossible to accurately portray the present situation or to foretell the ultimate issue of Lord Roberts' attempt to retreive the defeat.

LORD ROBERTS' REPORT.

The war office has posted a despatch from Lord Roberts reading as follows:

"Bloemfontein, April 2, 10:30 p. m.—In continuation of my telegram of March 31—There has been considerable delay in getting accurate returns of the casualties, as the action took place twenty-two miles hence. The telegraph cable has been interrupted several times, cloudy weather has interfered with signalling and, although there has been no engagement since, the force is continually in touch with the enemy.

"There were many acts of conspicuous gallantry displayed during the day. 'Q' battery remained in action under a cross-fire at 1,200 yards for some hours, the officers serving the guns as the casualties reduced the detachments. Several gallant attempts were made to bring in two guns, the teams of which had been killed, but at each attempt the horses were shot.

"The Essex, Munster, Shropshire and Northumberland mounted infantry and Roberts' horse covered the retirement of the guns from that position to the crossing of the drift found by the cavalry two miles further south and withstood the determined attacks of the enemy, who, in some cases, advanced within a hundred yards.

"'Q' battery of the Royal horse artillery was suddenly surrounded in the drift and the officers and men were all made made prisoners without a shot being fired. But Major Taylor and a sergeant major succeeded in escaping in the confusion. Five guns were captured at the same time. Further details tomorrow."

GUNS NOT RECOVERED.

Lord Roberts' despatch seems to finally dispose of the earlier report of the recovery of the guns and the fact that the Boers remain in occupation of the waterworks is taken as an indication that they intend to make a stand sufficiently long to cover the withdrawal of the guns and wagons to a place of safety, although the absence of definite information regarding the movements of Colonel French's cavalry makes it difficult to estimate their chance of adding this crowning success to the blow already inflicted.

A despatch from Maseru, Basutoland, dated Monday, April 2, says the Earl of Rosselyn, who is acting as war correspondent of the Daily Mail in South Africa, and who left there April 1 on his way to Thabu N'Chu, has probably fallen into the hands of the Boers.

BOERS REPORT SUCCESSES.

Pretoria, Saturday, March 31.—There has been heavy fighting between Brandfort and Bloemfontein. The Wakkerstrom and Ermelo commandos attacked 7,000 British and drove them back with heavy losses.

According to the reports of the wounded who have arrived here, fighting occurred all along the line. The federal troops held positions on the side and top of the mountain, while the British positions were on the opposite side of the hill. The British charged repeatedly, but were repulsed.

The latest reports say that the federals were more than holding their own, but the final result of the fighting is not known here. The federal loss was nine killed and wounded.

Reports from Brandfort, received later, state that 2,000 federals attacked 3,000 British successfully, but that 13,000 British reinforcements arrived and the federals were compelled to retire, after punishing the British severely. The federal loss, according to these reports, was slight.

A MEXICAN ANNIVERSARY.

City of Mexico, April 3.—Yesterday's anniversary of the victory of the Mexican army commanded by General Porfirio Diaz over the imperialist forces at Puebla thirty-three years ago was observed as a general holiday. Military manouvers were executed on plains of San Lazarus near the city in the presence of Prerident Diaz and hundreds of distinguished guests, cabinet ministers, members of the diplomatic corps, visiting Americans and Spaniards. The president, dressed in the uniform of a general of division and accompanied by a brilliant staff, reviewed the troops.

THE QUARANTINE IS LIFTED

Health Officers Raised the Quarantine Monday—Dr. Proegler on the Future Outlook.

The health officers believe there is now no further danger from small pox at Sacred Heart Academy north of this city, and the quarantine placed upon that institution was raised on Monday. The patient, a pupil seventeen years of age, has entirely recovered, and owing to the prompt action of the health officers and the excellent sanitary conditions prevailing at the academy, no additional cases developed. The patient's malady was a typical case of smallpox, though of a mild type.

Dr. Carl Proegler, the secretary of the county board of health, stated today that he did not believe there would be much further trouble with smallpox in this county until the coming fall and winter, when a return of the disease might be expected. Dr. Proegler further stated that he had determined upon a rigid enforcement of the vaccination order in all the country districts before the opening of the fall terms of school, and no child would be permitted to attend school until the regulations of the board of health had been complied with. "This spring," said the doctor, "the order came toward the close of the school, and many pupils evaded the order, but this will not be permitted in any case hereafter."

CANAL COMPANY CHARTERED.

Trenton, N. J., April 3.—The Inter-Oceanic Canal company was incorporated here today with an authorized capital of $10,000,000. The company is authorized to construct, own and operate a maritime canal between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans through the territory of Nicaragua, or any other territory in Central of South America. The incorporators are William B. Cromwell, Levi B. Gillchrist, James M. Rooney, James K. Trainer, George W. Bell, Charles P. Cadley and Richard W. Purcell, all of whose postoffice addresses are given as Jersey City.

RUSSIA PREPARING FOR WAR

CZAR WILL ATTEND MILITARY COUNCIL AT MOSCOW.

Berlin Semi-Official Organ Prints a Story of Alarming Tenor on Russian Activity.

Berlin, April 3.—The Kolnische Zeitung, a semi-official organ, publishes alarming reports regarding the busy war preparations which Russia is making on land and sea. The Zeitung announces that the czar will go to Moscow tomorrow to be present at a military council.

All dispatches relating to the mobilization of troops are carefully censored before they are given to the press. Officers who have applied for leave of absence have been informed that all such requests will be denied for the present.

REV. JOHN SCOTT DEAD.

LAST OF DEBATE

SENATE TO VOTE ON PORTO RICAN TARIFF TODAY.

CLOSING SPEECHES HEARD

SENATOR MASON PROTESTS AGAINST MEASURE.

SENATOR CULBERSON SPEAKS IN OPPOSITION.

Washington, April 3.—At 11 o'clock today the senate convened to begin the final day's discussion of the Porto Rican bill. Comparatively few people were in the galleries at the opening of the session, although the crowds increased rapidly afterward. After some minor business had been transacted, Mr. Mason, of Illinois, addressed the senate. His speech was not confined to the Porto Rican measure, but included in its scope all the problems attendant upon the control and government of our insular possessions.

Adverting to Porto Rico, he maintained that when the treaty of Paris war ratified the islands became a part of the United States and congress had no more right to put duty on her products than it had to put a tariff duty on products between New York and Washington.

BUT ONE WAY TO LEVY TARIFF.

"Unless you can get the supreme court to stultify and revise itself," said Mr. Mason, "there is but one way to levy tariff upon the people of the United States to prevent their trading with the rest of the United States. You must amend the constitution to do it. You must strike out that clause of the constitution which says all duties must be uniform. I beg you to count the cost of such an amendment.

"I cannot say to Europe, that is wholly foreign and alien, 'you may deliver the product of your labor here upon the payment of 100 per cent. of the present duty,' and then say to Porto Rica, 'you are 85 per cent. American and 15 per cent. alien and you must pay your pro-rata share of an import duty.'

"There is no such thing as 85 per cent. annuition. The people of Porto Rico are either our people 100 per cent. or they are 100 per cent. not our people."

Mr. Mason presented what he maintained was the good faith of the government of the United States. The people of Porto Rica had been promised by General Miles and, at least in an implied way, by others, that they should enjoy all the immunities and blessings of our free government. These promises, he held, the people would demand should be kept.

THE FEVER OF WAR.

Speaking of the fever of war, which he said was upon the administration, Mr. Mason said:

"But as we approach the hour when we must again appeal to the judgement of 70,000,000 people and the fires under the pots of patronage are burning low and the dangers of disappearing postoffices appear to us like a hideous nightmare, the hour of convalescence approaches, and we shout to the laboring people of the country: 'No, no. It is a mistake.' We have sacrificed the money and the lives of the people; we have abandoned the faith of the fathers for land, but we will abandon it all rather than forsake the political partisan doctrine; and we are saying on both sides of the chamber—those who have believed in the permanent government of the Philippine Islands—that if our permanent sovereignty there means the taking into this country, in competition with our labor, products of the people there, we will abandon this kind of expansion."

MR. CULBERSON SPEAKS.

At the conclusion of Mr. Mason's speech, Mr. Culberson, of Texas, addressed the senate in opposition to the pending bill. It was his first speech in the senate and he was given attentive hearing, particularly by his democratic colleagues. He declared that the pending measure, so far at least as the tariff provision was concerned, was "indefensible on moral, economic and constitutional grounds."

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, April 3.—When the house met today Mr. Cooper, of Wisconsin, chairman of the committee on insular affairs, asked unanimous consent for the consideration of the bill to authorize the secretary of the treasury to designate government depositories in Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines. Mr. Brewer, of Alabama, objected.

A bill was passed to allow men who served during the Spanish war or the Philippine insurrection in the army, navy or marine corps, who enters land under the homestead act, to date the time of such service from the period required to perfect title. Under the special order made some time ago the house then went into committee of the whole to consider the Hawaiian civil government bill

Under the order the debate is to last until Thursday, on which day at 4 o'clock the vote is to be taken. Mr. Knox, of Massachusetts, chairman of the committee on territories, who was in charge of the measure, made the opening speech in support of it.

A DECISION NEAR AT HAND

KENTUCKY COURT ABOUT TO DECIDE CONTESTS.

Court of Appeals Has Case Under Advisement and is Considering Points Involved.

Louisville, Ky., April 3.—A decision in the governorship case is expected from the court of appeals within a day or so, probably tomorrow. At the conclusion of the argument last night the case was taken under advisement and the judges are now considering the points involved. Pending a decision, interest centers in the proceedings of the grand jury, which is expected to return a number of indictments in connection with the Goebel case. The conclusion of the investigation is not expected for fully two weeks.

Governor Taylor was expected here today from his home in Morganstown.

PROHIBIT NETHERSOLE'S PLAY.

Columbus, Ohio, April 3.—A representative of Miss Olga Nethersole visited Mayor Swartz to secure his sanction to the production of "Sapho" in this city. The mayor positively refused to give his consent and notified Miss Nethersole's repesentative that the police would interfere if any attempt was made to produce the play here.

ARGUING CLARK CASE.

Washington, April 3.—Argument in the case of Senator Clark, of Montana, was begun by counsel for the memorialists today before the senate committe on privileges and elections. Arthur A. Bierney, counsel for the memorialists, was the first speaker.

STAGG A PROFESSOR.

Chicago, April 3.—At the thirty-second convocation of the University of Chicago A. Alonzo Stagg, master of maroon athletics, was promoted to a full professorship in physical culture and athletics.

LOCAL LINES.

Dr. S. E. DeMuth, of Cecil, and Dr. S. S. Frezier, of Kunkle, Ohio, are in the city.

Mrs. J. A. Durand and Mrs. F. Yeagley, of Lima, Ohio, are the guests of Mrs. H. P. Moses.

Mrs. Thomas F. Shay, of Cincinnati, Ohio, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Costigan, of 147 Shawnee avenue, for a few days.

Henry Antwerp is critically ill with pneumonia and stomach trouble. Mr. Antwerp is well advanced in years, and is an elder in the Westminster church.

On Friday evening at the home of Mrs. William Lawson, on Grace avenue, the members of the Utile Dulci club will give a character party. Each member will be dressed to represent some historical character, and will bear out the character represented by them as nearly as possible. Mrs. Lawson will be assisted in entertaining by Mesdames Wilson, Saylor and Humphries. The gentlemen are invited.

The Young People's Christian union of Calvary U. B. church surprised the president of the union, W. H. Woodruff, at his home on East Creighton avenue, on Saturday evening, in honor of his birthday anniversary. There were about seventy-five in the party, and they spent a most enjoyable evening. Mr. Woodruff was presented with a handsome arm chair, by the class, as a tribute of their regard for his efforts in behalf of the union. A delicious lap supper was served at a late hour by Mrs. Woodruff.

A HOPEFUL VIEW.

OTIS REPORTS ON AFFAIRS IN PHILIPPINES.

AMERICAN LOSSES FOR YEAR

THREE MONTHS' FIGHTING NOT VERY COSTLY.

THINKS CONDITIONS GROWING MORE PACIFIC.

Washington, April 3.—General Otis has cabled to the war department, probably with a view to correcting erroneous impressions that exist in this country as to the state of the insurrection in the Philippines, a summary of the result of the development of the campaign since the first of the calendar year. His figures go far toward offsetting the belief that exists in some quarters that since the adoption of guerilla methods of warfare the insurgents have inflicted substantial loss upon American arms in comparison with the punishment which they have themselves received. A significant sentence in the report differentiates insurgents and ladrones, showing that Otis has taken cognizance of the fact that a considerable number of the hostiles are not soldiers under the rules of war and may not expect the same treatment. The report, which is dated Manila, April 3, is as follows:

"Since January 1st, one hundred and twenty-four skirmishes in Philippines have been reported, mostly very slight affairs. Our casualties were three officers and seventy-eight enlisted men killed; thirteen officers and one-hundred and fifty-one men wounded. Insurgent and ladrone loss in killed and left on field, 1,453; small arms secured, 3,051; pieces of artillery, 165; large captures of other insurgent property. A number of important insurgent officers are surrendering and the situation is gradually becoming more pacific.

"Otis."

ENLIST NATIVE MUSICIANS.

In reply to a cable message received at the war department some time ago from General Otis, asking for authority to enlist native Filipino musicians in the various regimental bands in the islands, Adjutant General Corbin has sent the following cablegram:

"Secretary of war authorizes enlistment of competent native musicians in regimental bands."

The Filipino musicians are said to display a high degree of musical intelligence and undoubtedly will prove very desirable acquisitions to the military bands.

FINE SHOWING OF PICTURES

ANNUAL EXHIBIT OF THE SOCIETY OF ART.

Rich Collection of Water Colors and Etchings—Excellent Specimens of Students' Work.

The annual spring exhibition of pictures which opened last evening at the public library building under the auspices of the Society of Art will be highly pleasing to Fort Wayne people who appreciate and enjoy high-class pictures, and to the Society of Art must be accorded the credit for the fact that this number is constantly increasing. The present exhibit is radically different from any heretofore shown, though no less meritorious than those which have preceded it. The display is made up very largely of water colors, though there are many fine etchings, and supplementary to the main exhibit is a creditable collection of the work of the pupils of the Fort Wayne School of Art. These are studies in still life, many of them by children of the class, and appear to good advantage even when shown beside the work of those advanced in art work. Among those whose studies are shown are Miss Jackson, Cosette Keegan, Mrs. Randall, Celia Foley, Clara Hull, Miss Buchman, Virginia White, William McKay, Hedwig Dahl and V. Rossington. The main exhibit is from the collection of Albert Rouiller, of Chicago, who has so often shown pictures in Fort Wayne, and from the studios of Miss Swett, Mrs. Lamb, Mr. Broadhead and Mr. Forkner, American artists of high standing. It is the society's first attempt to secure the works direct from the artists themselves and the result is highly gratifying, for it has brought together collections that are representative of the work of the individual artists and offering at the same time a wide variety of subject and treatment. Perhaps the gem of the whole exhibit is "A Country Road," by Daniel Klotz, a wonderful conception in which the artist has embodied grace and charm and feeling to an admirable degree. Arthur Dawson's water color, "Cows in the Meadow," will be greatly admired, as will also Mr. Broadhead's landscapes, "The Old House," by Mr. Dennis, and Mr. Harris' "Scotch Coast" and "Windy Day." There is wonderful detail in Mr. Pierce's "Circus Poster," and one who has been a boy himself will seem to read the day dreams of the lad who forms the central figure. Miss Swett's collection of sketches of the rugged sea coast country is a striking one, while Mrs. Lamb, a Toledo artist, contributes a number of flower pictures in color in which the brush has faithfully counterfeited nature. The dash of color infused by this collection appears to splendid advantage in the general collection and Mrs. Lamb's pictures will prove quite as fascinating as any in the collection. In all 110 water colors are shown, while the etchings number considerably more, and include the work of Whistler, Seymour Hayden, Gravesand, F. S. Church and others. The exhibit, which will remain open until Saturday evening, will richly repay a visit.

NETHERSOLE TRIAL BEGINS

CASE CALLED IN NEW YORK COURTS.

Merits of "Sapho" to be Decided by Law—Special Venire of Talesmen Denied.

New York, April 3.—Olga Nethersole and others jointly accused in a blanket indictment of maintaining a nuisance and offending public decency in the production of a dramatization of Daudet's "Sapho," were put on trial today in the criminal branch of the supreme court, where Justice Fursman presided. Those indicted with Miss Nethersole are Hamilton Revelle, Marcus Mayor and Theodore Moss. Miss Nethersole came into court with her private secretary, and Messrs. Mayer and Revelle. Mr. Moss was not in court and it was said that he was sick. Assistant District Attorney McIntyre endeavored to secure an adjournment for two weeks in order to get a special jury panel. Justice Fursman, however, denied the motion, saying that he was satisfied a fair jury could be obtained from the general panel. The examination of talesmen then began.

Charles G. Becker, a clerk, the first talesman examined, was acceptable to both parties. Several rejections followed, and then Joseph M. Kauffman, secretary of a manufacturing company, was the second accepted.

TWOMEY AND THE "BARON."

Tom Twomey and "Baron" H. C. F. VonWestrumb came together in a fistcuff this morning on Calhoun street. Tom has been employed by the clerks' union distributing cards in front of Fortreide's shoe store and Westrumb had been employed by the proprietor to look out for his interests. The two men often have their "spats" and this morning there came a moment when words were not strong enough and "the baron" smashed Tom over the head with an instrument alleged to be a "billy." A deep gash was cut, which it was necessary for a surgeon to sew up. Westrumb was arrested and hauled to the police station, but was bailed out. Affidavits have been filed against each of the men in Justice Huser's court and it is said other affidavits are fortncoming.

ROBBERS KILL OPERATOR.

Winfield, Kan., April 3.—Robbers last night rifled the Santa Fe depot here and shot and killed D. C. Coates, the night operator, in escaping. They secured only a few cents. The killing was evidently committed to prevent identification.

A LYNCHING REPORTED.

Savannah, Ga., April 3.—It is reported that Allen Brookes, the negro who assaulted Mrs. F. W. Harte, a white woman, near Bloomingdale, yesterday, was lynched today near Berryville.

IS IN DUBLIN BAY.

THE ROYAL YACHT NOW LIES OFF KINGSTON.

VICTORIA ACROSS CHANNEL

SHE WILL NOT GO TO DUBLIN UNTIL TOMORROW.

RAIN FALLING IN IRELAND

SEA TRIP MADE AHEAD OF TIME.

Dublin, April 3.—The royal yacht Victoria and Albert, with Queen Victoria on board, arrived at Kingstown at 2 o'clock this afternoon, three and a half hours ahead of the scheduled time, and was greeted with a royal salute from the channel squadron.

Rain has been falling all morning. The royal yacht lay off Kingstown, no one disembarking from her and no one will leave the vessel until tomorrow. Only a handful of persons saw the arrival of her majesty.

ARRIVAL AT HOLYHEAD.

London, April 3.—Queen Victoria, who left Windsor Castle at half past nine last evening en route for Ireland, arrived at Holyhead at 9:10 a. m. today.

The authorities of the place, the officers of the warships in the harbor and a guard of honor, waited the arrival of her majesty. The general public was excluded from the station. When the queen alighted she was presented with the usual address of welcome. She gave her reply to Lord Denbigh, who handed it to the officials. It read:

"I thank you for your royal and dutiful welcome and for your expressions of devotion to my throne and person. The practical and generous sympathy for those who have suffered or who are likely to suffer in consequence of the present war which has been shown by all classes of my subjects has been a great consolation to me during the time of suspense and anxiety through which we are passing. I join in your hearty prayers that peace may soon be restored and that the other blessings of heaven be long continued to my empire and I wish all prosperity to the country you represent."

The queen then walked across the platform leaning on the arm of an Indian attendant, and later embarked on board the royal yacht Victoria and Albert, which, piloted by the Irene and escorted by the royal yacht Osborne and the cruisers Galatea and Australia, steamed out of the harbor for Kingstown.

SWORD-BEARER BALKS.

Dublin, April 3.—The premature arrival of her majesty and the wretched weather were a disappointment to Dublin, as thousands of people had planned to go out to Kingstown. Nevertheless, as soon as the news spread large numbers started for the harbor, while the Duke of Connaught, commander of the forces in Ireland, and Earl Cadogan, the lord lieutenant, also hurried there and later in the afternoon boarded the royal yacht Victoria and Albert, where they greeted the queen.

James Egan, the Dublin city sword-bearer, who for nine years was imprisoned for political offenses, refused today to hand the queen the sword nor would he take part in tomorrow's proceedings. This declination at the last hour caused a sensation, and Lord Mayor Tallon is now looking for another sword-bearer. In a letter to the town clerk, Mr. Egan says:

"I will yield nothing to any Irishman in respect for the individuality of the aged lady, but I cannot join in any act of public courtesy toward the head of a state which has tried me upon charges that were false and sent me to suffer for nine years in English dungeons, the state that still hall-marks me with the degradation of a ticket-of-leave man."

Mr. Egan adds that he is prepared to accept the consequences and hand in his resignation.

When Miss Maud Gonne lectured in this city several years ago, James Egan, who had only recently been released from Portsmouth prison spoke from the same platform at Library hall. He had been convicted of treason-felony and sentenced for a term of fourteen years, but was released at the expiration of nine years.

And decide for yourself.

Here is one case of it.

Mrs. J. F. Sharping, of 161 High street, now living at the corner of Clay and Clayton streets, says: "After trying many different remedies for my backache, which was brought on by kidney complaint, I decided to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial. I had read much about them and went to Meyer Bros. & Co.'s drug store and got a box. I could feel the effects of their use from the first dose and at the end of a week my backache was all gone. I could stoop as well as ever and felt strong and well."

CHICAGO VOTING.

GOOD CITIZENS TRYING TO DOWN GANG RULE.

THE CONTEST IS A WARM ONE

WEATHER IS FINE AND BIG VOTE IS GOING IN.

BOSS COX WIPES OUT FUSION IN CINCINNATI.

Chicago, April 3.—A brisk vote was polled early today for the election of aldermen and town officials. Politicians had all along complained of the lack of interest taken in the campaign and were agreeably surprised at the large number of voters who, encouraged by perfect spring weather, visited the voting booths before going to work.

The "reform" element, which has a majority in the present council, began work at the peep of dawn to get their constituents to cast their needful ballots. But they were not more active than the leaders and the rank and file of the so-called "gang."

The traction and other corporate interests have been active throughout the campaign working against the "reform" candidates, who stand for compensation for all public franchises. Thirty-six aldermen are to be elected and assessors, collectors, supervisors and clerks for the various townships.

POLITICS IN NEBRASKA.

Omaha, Neb., April 3.—Municipal elections are being held today in all towns and cities of Nebraska, except Omaha. In the larger cities the issues are political, though local matters are so thoroughly mixed that it can hardly be called a straight political fight. In the smaller towns the liquor license question predominates. In South Omaha, which is generally a democratic stronghold, the fight was political and probably will be an exceedingly lively one. The weather was perfect and a large vote was polled.

FRANCHISE ISSUE FOREMOST.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 3.—Municipal elections were held throughout Wisconsin today. The contest in this city was the most exciting in many years. The street railway issue has been the feature of the campaign. The weather early in the day was cloudy and threatening rain but a heavy vote was polled. The city tickets were headed by Mayor David S. Rose, democrat, seeking re-election, against Henry J. Baumgartner, republican. Aldermen, supervisors and a county judge were also voted upon.

IN KANSAS CITY.

Kansas City, Mo., April 3.—Fine weather brought out almost the entire vote of the city today. A full city ticket was to be selected. For mayor P. S. Brown, jr., headed the republican lists, while James Reed led the democrats.

MIXED RESULTS IN MICHIGAN.

Detroit, Mich., April 3.—Municipal elections were held in Michigan yesterday, the issues being largely of a local nature. However, lines were closely drawn in the majority of cities between republicans and democrats. Out of thirty elections reported, fourteen were given to the democrats. At Marquette one of the largest votes ever polled took place when Joseph Weidhart, people's candidate, was elected, as well as the entire people's ticket. At Hastings the republicans gain control for the first time in the history of the city, while at Lansing, the capital of the state, democrats are in control for the first time in a score of years. At Grand Haven and Eaton Rapids the democratic regimes were overturned, republicans gaining control.

RESULTS IN OHIO.

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 3.—A summary of the results of the municipal and township elections in Ohio yesterday indicates more republican than democratic gains, but no cause for it is assigned except that the republican factions that have been fighting for years have evidently been getting together and that the democrats have shown more indifference than usual. This applies especially to the larger cities, but there have been republican gains, according to the returns from rural districts and interior towns, that are not thus accounted for. The result in Cincinnati, which on the average plurality, more than reverses the results at the last general election, is attributed to less factional fight among the republicans and the indifference of the democrats.

In Cleveland, where the factions have been most intense, the result is also decisive. A feature of the day has been the election of Dr. Washington Gladden as a councilman at Columbus, where the question of municipal franchises was a special issue. The writings of Dr. Gladden on labor questions and social and political economy are well known, as well as his work as a pastor and lecturer, and his experiences in a parliament of ward representatives will no doubt attract general attention. The republicans elected their ticket at Toledo, where Mayor Samuel Jones has held sway as an independent factor for years. At Dayton the democrats re-elected Mayor Lindmuth. At some interior points the republicans elected officers where they had never elected them before, while there have been no phenomenal gains by the democrats. As local issues were paramount at almost all places, it is difficult to indicate any cause for the drift of public preferences.

The municipal election in this city resulted in a sweeping victory for the straight republican ticket, headed by Julius Fleischman, the young millionaire distiller and horse owner, for mayor. Opposed to this was the fusion ticket, a combination of democrats and republicans who were antagonistic to the rule of George B. Cox, the acknowledged boss of the republicans of this (Hamilton) county. The head of the fusion ticket was Alfred M. Cohen.

Fleischman's majority is about 7,000 and the rest of the ticket goes in by from 3,000 to 5,000. A hard fight was made on Thomas J. Noctor for police court clerk. Noctor, not yet twenty-nine years old, dominated the fusion nominating convention and as a leader was considered a dangerous man by all the republicans. The net result of the election is that for the next three years the city will be in the hands of the republicans, who not only will fill all city offices, but will control the board of public service, board of legislation and board of education. The result will also have an important bearing on the state and national elections next fall, as it insures to the republicans a handsome majority in this county.

NEWS OF BASE BALL WORLD

Mansfield outdid every club in the country last season in straight victories. The Haymakers won twenty consecutive games, a record equalled by no other club.

Mansfield has offered to trade Outfielder Flournoy to Youngstown for Harry Truby. Oh, my! what troubles there will be in Inter-State cities with Lowney and Truby on the same team.

Manager Finn, of Youngstown, has a fight on his hands to retain Catcher Hess, who has signed with both Youngstown and Omaha. Nick Young has been asked to determine with which team he shall play.

Ed Cramer, editor of a country weekly at Greensburg, Pa., at a salary of $75 a month, has been offered a place as catcher on the Boston team at $75 a week, but has declined. Cramer ranks as the best amateur catcher in Pennsylvania, but does not care to become a professional.

Reach's Base Ball Guide for 1900 has been issued and contains a thorough history of the game for 1899. Thirteen pages are devoted to the statistics of the Inter-State league, which now ranks as one of the solid base ball organizations of the country. In speaking of the little league the compiler and editor of the Guide is quite complimentary.

Pittsburg Post: "Harry Colgan, of Homestead, has again been appointed on President Power's umpire staff. It will be the fourth season that Colgan has officiated in the Inter-State league. This is a splendid record. He is a first-class umpire and only for his modesty, which prevents him from pushing himself forward, should now be in the National league. There are precious few as competent and reliable umpires as he."

Mr. and Mrs. Bedard, of Garrett, are in the city for a few days. Mr. Bedard is here for medical treatment.

BROUGHT INTO COURT BY DETECTIVE COLING.

K. R. Krider Pays a Big Fine for Distributing Obscene Literature—Notes.

During the past few weeks many false alarms of fire have been sounded from boxes in different parts of the city. The police suspected that it was the work of boys and Detective Coling began an investigation which resulted this morning in the arrest of Andrew Dornte, Harold Cowdrey and Stanley Cowdrey. They were charged with having unlawfully sent in fire alarms and after hearing the evidence Mayor Scherer lectured the lads and allowed them to go on a promise of good behavior hereafter.

THIEVES BOUND OVER

George Harkenrider and John Yates, the young men arrested Monday for stealing brass, etc., from the Wabash yards, were arraigned in police court this morning and entered pleas of not guilty. Mayor Scherer heard the evidence and bound each of them over to the circuit court in the sum of $100.

KRIDER PUNISHED.

Harvey C. Krider was arrested by Detective Coling Monday evening on a charge of passing lewd and indecent cards. Krider is a painter and on the back of his business cards he had printed some very indecent and suggestive language. These cards he distributed promiscuously, the police finally getting hold of some of the cards. When arrested several of the cards were found on his person. Krider told the officers that the cards were distributed indiscriminately at Montpelier and he did not know it was against the law. Mayor Scherer assessed a fine of $25 and costs, amounting in all to $36, and Krider stayed the docket for ninety days.

SINKING A SHAFT.

Contractor Peter is today sinking a shaft at the corner of Harmer and Erie streets. From this shaft he will tunnel both ways. Another gang of men will be put to work immediately.

ROYAL

Baking Powder

Absolutely Pure

Makes hot-breakfast-breads wholesome—no yeast germs, no alum. Makes cake, biscuit and pastry of superior fineness, flavor and delicacy. Makes food that will keep moist and sweet. Is most economical, because it is the purest and greatest in leavening strength. In the easy, expeditious preparation of the finer cakes and pastries appropriate to the season, Royal is indispensable.

Care must be taken to avoid baking powders made from alum. Such powders are sold cheap, because they cost but a few cents per pound. Not only will they spoil the cake, but alum is a corrosive acid, which taken in food means injury to health.

SERIES EFFECT OF A JOKE.

Binghampton, N. Y., April 2.—As the result of an April fool joke Edith Walrach, of Camden, N. J., who is visiting friends here, is said to be dying. Miss Walrach is nineteen years old and of very nervous temperament. In the family she is visiting is a young practical joker. He procured a small live mouse, which he put in an egg-shell, covering the opening with plaster of Paris. This was brought in with the breakfast, and when Miss Walrach broke the shell and the liberated mouse jumped out she screamed and fainted away. During the day she had three nervous fits, and her physician pronounces her condition critical. The young man is nearly wild with grief, as he and Miss Walrach were shortly to be married.

DOESN'T WANT MUCH.

The Commercial club's committee on manufacturers, together with a number of other prominent citizens, held a conference at the Randall hotel Monday afternoon with L. C. Boyd, of Gas City, with reference to the locating of an iron foundry in Fort Wayne. Mr. Boyd is agent for a party whose name he did not disclose, who would locate in Fort Wayne a plant to employ 150 men provided the city would donate a site and $22,000 for the erection of shop buildings. Mr. Boyd was informed that his conditions were too exacting and nothing was accomplished.

COFFEE VS. PREACHER

"I have been a great coffee drinker for years and it has kept me in a bilious condition, with more or less neuralgia, as the result of general ill-health produced by coffee drinking. I have discovered that coffee is a rank poison to my system. Since we have been using Postum Cereal Food Coffee, we not only find it a delightful beverage, with all the good qualities of coffee, but it has none of the injurious effects.

"Any person suffering from nervous troubles, caused by the poison of coffee, should be able to get rid of the sickness in short order if such a one will leave off the cause and take up Postum Food Coffee. There has been no coffee used in our home for a considerable time.

"People who are poisoned by coffee should leave it off, because when one sins against his body, he dishonors God, 'for our bodies are the temples of the Holy Ghost.' It would seem that any one conscious of the bodily distress that coffee brings, would have no trouble in leaving it off when Postum Food Coffee can be secured." Rev. John M. Linn, Pastor M. E. church, South Corpus Christi, Texas.

The Porto Rican tariff bill may pass congress, but it will not pass the people.

Senator Beveridge seems disposed to illustrate the old adage that talk is not costly, but it takes nerve to vote as you talk.

Oom Paul has added largely to his trading stock by the capture of a large detachment of the British Household cavalry and a part of the Tenth Hussars. Britain's bluest blood is now hostage for the Dutch farmers on English prison ships.

When the statistics show that Porto Rico's exports in February, 1899, were $279,000 and in February, 1900, $78,000, we can hardly blame the people of the island for beginning to think that they need an additional agent of prosperity of their own.

George B. Cox, than whom there is no more various political boss in the country, has perfected his title to ownership of the municipal offices of Cincinnati. He "put it up strong" yesterday in order, no doubt, to discourage future fighting against him. With Cox "boss" means boss.

Not being able to follow the monarchial fashion by discovery of prospect of war with somebody else Italy has fallen into line by going to war with herself. There is disorder in the parliament, the people are murmuring with discontent and revolution is in the air. King Humbert has left the capital and the dangerous spirit of unrest grows.

The queen's message of sympathy to the widow of General Joubert stands not only for a personal tribute but voices the feeling of the British people. General Joubert was the one figure on the Boer side that appealed to the generous sympathies of the British. That this is proved by the fact that even the humiliation of Majuba Hill did not affect the admiration with which the commander in that historic affair was regarded. General Joubert never failed to deplore the British loss then occasioned. The thoughtful remembrance of his bravery and honor by the queen will do something toward producing a better feeling between the contestants.

Julian Ralph's violent efforts to produce the kind of correspondence his English employers demand lead him into indiscretion. After his strenuous assertions that the Boers are cowards some of his English readers may ask themselves what inference this involves concerning the English who, in proportions of from two to ten times as many as the Boers, have found the latter such tough subjects to handle.

While ex-Speaker Reed continues to withhold anything like an extended expression of his opinion from the enthusiastic interviewers, he is still enjoying himself at their attempts while giving, at the same time, the impression that he could, if he would, say a great deal. When asked in Washington the other day what he thought of President McKinley's repeated changes on the Porto Rican question, he said: "It is impossible for me to criticise the emperor of expediency."

The direct effect of the decision of Attorney General Griggs in the case of Captain McCalla, of the navy, which holds that he was advanced and promoted by implication when the advancement of Lieutenant Commander Pillsbury was confirmed, will be to establish the record that the advancement and promotion of Captain Higginson to be commodore by implication confirmed the advancement of Rear Admiral Schley "for eminent and conspicuous conduct in battle."

The beginning of what many observers have predicted would prove a serious obstacle to Cuban progress is noted in the dispatches from Santiago de Cuba. Owing to the death of the mayor a new election is necessary, and it is said there is a bitter contest on between the white and colored voters. The color line has been closely drawn and it is feared that there will be trouble at the polls. The whites declare that rather than submit to negro domination they will organize an annexation party, though heretofore they have favored independence. Wherever the two races come into contact the world around this race feeling manifests itself. Heretofore it has not played a very important part in Cuban affairs, because the officials have been mostly appointed by Spain. Now that the people rule themselves they have already begun to divide on the color line, and as a considerable portion of the insurgents were colored, and the native party is, in fact, dominated by men of pure or mixed negro blood, the race question is likely to become a burning issue.

THE USHERS' BENEFIT.

The ushers of Masonic Temple can have only felicitation at the success of their first annual benefit, given last evening in the appearance of Robert B. Mantell and his splendid company in "The Dagger and the Cross." Mr. Mantell has been a Fort Wayne favorite for years, but his play was a new one, and the audience was large and representative. There will be few dissenters to the general verdict that "The Dagger and the Cross" is a powerful production and Mr. Mantell has surrounded himself with a capable and evenly balanced company for its interpretation. Through the entire five acts of the production the interest is well sustained, and there is but the faintest vein of comedy to relieve the tension of the strongly dramatic scenes where love, hate, jealousy, despair and revenge are portrayed in a powerful manner. The applause was generous and evenly distributed, and Mr. Mantell was compelled to come before the curtain in response to his ovation. The force of ushers at Masonic Temple, in whose benefit the performance was given, is made up of Adolph J. Morel, head usher, Harry Pfleiger, Clarence Heckman, George Gallon, Arthur Slumann, Charles Young, Will Young, Frank McCurdy, Arthur Bedward, Tom J. Tolan, Eddie Feustel, Earl Long and Carl Zurmuehlen.

DR. MIVART AND THE CHURCH.

The account given in the daily papers of the position held by Dr George Mivart toward the teachings of the Catholic church tend to mislead. It may be of interest to the public to know on what points of Catholic doctrine St. George Mivart went astray. We should remember that Mr. Mivart was not a theologian. He himself had taken special pains to expressly state this fact, and yet he wantonly dealt with the grave questions of theology—questions that can only be rightly treated by men of long and careful training in theological studies. In every age there appear men such as Dr. Mivart, men who feel the call strong within them to advise the church of Christ—not only to advise her, but to point out to her errors even in doctrine. Instead of trying to fit the church to the age and the spirit of the age, they would do much better in trying to fit themselves to the spirit of that church which is guided by the unchangeable truth—the Holy Spirit.

From the circular letter which Cardinal Vaughn, under whose jurisdiction Dr. Mivart was, sent to his priests we learn the various doctrines on which Dr. Mivart had gone astray:

"Archbishop's House, Westminster, Feast of St. Peter's Chair, 1900.—Rev. Dear Father: Dr. St. George Mivart in his articles entitled 'The Continuity of Catholicism' and 'Some Recent Apologists,' in the Nineteenth Century and the Fortnightly Review for January, 1900, has declared, or at least seemed to declare, that it is permissible for Catholics to hold certain heresies—regarding the virginal birth of our Lord and the perpetual virginity of the Blessed Virgin; the Gospel account of the resurrection and the immunity of the sacred Body from corruption; the reality and transmission of original sin; the redemption as a real satisfaction for the sins of men; the everlasting punishment of the wicked; the inspiration and integrity of Holy Scripture; the right of the Catholic church to interpret the sense of Scripture with authority; her perpetual retention of her doctrines in the same sense; not to speak of other false propositions. As he has thereby rendered his orthodoxy suspect, and has, moreover, confirmed the suspicion by failing, after three notifications, to sign the annexed profession of faith when tendered to him by me, it now becomes my duty to take further action, and I hereby inhibit him from approaching the sacraments, and forbid my priests to administer them to him, until he shall have proved his orthodoxy to the satisfaction of his ordinary.

"Believe me to be, Rev. Dear Father, your faithful and devoted servant.

"Herbert Cardinal Vaughn,
"Archbishop of Westminster.

"P. S.—If it were true, as Dr Mivart asserts, that there were persons calling themselves Catholics who hold any of the above heresies, it would be necessary to remind them that they have ceased in reality to be Catholics, and that if they were to approach the sacraments they would do so sacrilegiously, at the peril of their souls and in defiance of the law of the church.

"Herbert Cardinal Vaughn."

The profession of faith which Dr Mivart was called upon to sign ran as follows:

"I reject and condemn all doctrines which deny the reality and transmission of original sin, and the perfect sufficiency of the atonement by which man is reconciled to God in the blood of Jesus Christ, as false and heretical and contrary to the holy Catholic faith now and at all future time.

"I firmly believe and profess that the souls of men after death will be judged by God, and that those who are saved will 'go into everlasting life' (Matt. xxv, 46), and those who are condemned 'into everlasting punishment.' I reject as false and heretical all doctrines which teach that the souls in hell may eventually be saved, or that their state in hell may be one which is not of punishment. (Cf. constitution of council of Lateran IV.)

"In accordance with the holy councils of Trent and of the Vatican, I receive all the books of the Old and New Testament with all their parts as set forth in the fourth session of the council of Trent, and contained in the ancient Latin edition of the Vulgate, as sacred and canonical—not because, having been carefully composed by mere human industry they were afterward approved by the church's authority, nor merely because they contain revelation with no admixture of error; but because having been written by the inspiration of the Holy Ghost, they have God for their Author and have been delivered as such to the church herself. Wherefore, in all matters of faith or morals appertaining to the building up of Christian doctrine, I believe that to be the true sense of Holy Scripture which our holy mother the church has held and now holds, to whom the judgment of the true sense and interpretation of Holy Scripture belongs. (Cf. council of Trent, session IV; council of the Vatican, Dogmatic Constitution of the Catholic Faith, chap. ii, can. ii.)

"Moreover, I condemn and revoke all other words and statements which in articles contributed by me to the Fortnightly Review and the Nineteenth Century or in any other of my writings, are found to be in matter of faith or morals contrary to the teaching of the holy Catholic faith according to the determination of the Apostolic see, and in all such matters I submit myself to the judgment of the said see, receiving all that it receives and condemning all that it condemns."

If you should ask a practical educated Catholic the reason of Dr. St. George Mivart's sad error, he would answer, "pride," or he would tell you that Dr. Mivart never had Catholic faith, which is a virtue infused by God into our souls by which we believe, without doubting, all those things which God has revealed and proposes by His church to our belief, or if he did possess faith, he lost it through presumption.

Dr. Mivart was without doubt one of the leading lights of the scientific world. He had no equal in the science of biology, but he had many superiors in theology. He did not always think and write as he thought and wrote in the January number of the Nineteenth Century and the Fortnightly Review. Nearly thirty years ago the church received him as her child. He was gifted, but his gifts came from God and in entering the church he merely gave back to God that which belonged to God.

He performed many good works which will plead for him before the throne of judgment. Q.

THE BIMETALLIC UNION ACTS

Favor Reaffirmation of the 1896 Platform—May Attend State Convention.

Judge W. G. Colerick presided at an important meeting of the Bimetallic Union last evening. The committee on halls reported in favor of leasing the three halls on the third floor of the Tri-State building and it is probable that the club will soon arrange to change its meeting place. Arrangements will also be made with the Jeffersonian League and the Bryan Old Soldiers' club to meet in the new rooms.

Members of the Bimetallic Union are desirous of attending the state convention and Hon. R. C. Bell was named to select a committee of three to act with a committee of the Jeffersonian League and arrange for a special train to the state convention.

The union decided to push the work of the campaign and the executive officers were authorized to address letters to the 119 vice presidents in Allen county requesting them to make a report at least one month before the state convention as to the sentiment in favor of the renomination of Bryan and the reaffirmation of the Chicago platform of 1896. There are more than 900 members of the Bimetallic Union and good results are anticipated from the work inaugurated last evening.

TO IMPROVE CEMETERY

The stockholders of the Fort Wayne Catholic cemetery met in Library hall on Monday evening for the purpose of electing a new board of trustees and for hearing the annual reports of the officers. Very Rev. John H. Guendling presided. The following trustees were chosen: Messrs. Louis Fox, Edward Gilmartin, Henry C. Berghoff, John B. Reuss, George Jacoby and J. B. Lassus. The annual reports which were read showed that the condition of the association is most satisfactory, much better than the same period last year. The surplus this year is much larger than last year. A number of improvements, which it is proposed to have made in the cemetery this year, were discussed and if the plans which were suggested are carried out the ground will be greatly beautified. Among other things, it was decided to build a greenhouse in the cemetery and a meeting will be held in the near future to consider plans. On Thursday evening of this week the newly elected board of trustees will hold a meeting, at which time officers will be chosen.

MUNICIPAL NEWS.

CITY PREPARING TO IMPROVE SWINNEY PARK.

BOARD OF WORKS INSPECTS

TWO NEW ENTRANCES TO THE PRETTY RESORT.

WEATHER AFFECTS SIDEWALK

PROPOSITION FROM AMERICAN DISTRICT COMPANY.

The members of the board of works and City Engineer Randall inspected Swinney park this morning for the purpose of determining on improvements to be made in the beautiful summer resort during the summer. It has been decided that a new entrance for pedestrians will be provided at Jefferson street. A broad walk will be constructed and young shade trees will be planted on each side of the walk. No teams will be allowed to drive into the park at this entrance. Later another entrance may be opened at Jones street. Numerous young trees are to be planted about the park and the board of works is determined to make Swinney park one of the cosiest resorts in the west. It is probable that a canopy will be erected over the flowing well also. On the hot summer days when people congregate in crowds about the fountain to get a fresh drink of water it will be more comfortable for them to wait in the shade under a canopy than in the sun.

COMMITTEE OF WHOLE.

The council committee of the whole will meet in the council chamber this evening to discuss the proposed franchise to be granted to the Indiana and Ohio Traction company. The committee on contracts and franchises has submitted its report after a thorough investigation and inquiry and it is believed that there will be few, if any, changes in the report of the committee, although it is understood that some councilmen are not satisfied with the amended franchise. Whatever changes made will be of minor importance.

HARD ON SIDEWALKS.

The open winter just passed has been very hard on sidewalks and complaints are numerous every day as to the condition of walks in different parts of the city. Chairman Eggemann, of the board of works, was on a tour of inspection yesterday and in almost every square visited in the southern part of the city he found defective walks. An order will soon be issued for the immediate repair of all defective walks.

BOARD OF WORKS.

Judge Zollars, representing the American District Telegraph company, made a proposition to the board to pay into the city treasury 2 per cent. of the revenues of the wire service, but the board insisted that the company must pay 2 per cent. of the package delivery and messenger service. No agreement was reached.

The clerk was instructed to notify frescoers and decorators that bids for repainting the city hall would be received one week from next Thursday night.

SPREADS LIKE WILDFIRE.

When things are "the best" they become "the best selling." Abraham Hare, a leading druggist of Belleville, O., writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have handled in 20 years. You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Electric Bitters tones up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, hence cures multitudes of maladies. It builds up the entire system. Puts new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, run-down man or woman. Price 50 cents. Sold by Dreier Bros., druggists.

A SMALL DIVIDEND.

Referee Chapin has declared a dividend of 4 per cent. in the matter of the bankrupt estate of Rudolph Steger. This represents the entire proceeds of the estate which is to be divided among the creditors.

A HORRIBLE OUTBREAK.

"Of large sores on my little daughter's head developed into a case of scald head" writes C. D. Isbill, of Morganton, Tenn., but Bucklen's Arnica Salve completely cured her. It's a guaranteed cure for Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Sores, Ulcers and Piles. Only 25c at Drier Bros.

"To-morrow, and to-morrow, and to-morrow,
Creeps in this petty pace from day to day,
And all our yesterdays have lighted fools
The way to dusty death."

Procrastination is the thief of health as well as the thief of time. There are few things in which procrastination is so much indulged as in letter writing. We mean to write, but "to-morrow and to-morrow creep on" and we neglect it. This is bad enough when the correspondence is social or business in its character, but when it concerns the vital issue of health it is infinitely worse.

This touches you, if you are one of the women who have felt inclined to take advantage of Dr. Pierce's offer of a consultation by letter, free. You have studied the evidence which shows how other women have been cured. You cannot doubt but that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription does cure diseases peculiar to women; irregularity, ulceration, inflammations, bearing-down pains. You cannot doubt it because of the force of the testimony of hundreds of thousands of weak women made strong, and sick women made well, and you mean to write—to-morrow.

Write to-day. Your letter will be read in private, its contents guarded as a sacred confidence, and an answer promptly mailed you in a plain envelope without any printing upon it. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"When I wrote you about my ailments I was living in [illegible]," writes [illegible]. "I took six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, four of the Golden Medical Discovery and four vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Before I had taken four bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' I was a new woman. I cannot make [illegible] but will confirm the truth of all I [illegible] those who write inclose stamped envelope for reply."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets are a natural aid to beauty. They clear the complexion.

BAR-BEN
THE GREAT RESTORATIVE.

Bar-Ben is the greatest known nerve tonic and blood purifier. A True Woman

looks forward to motherhood with more pleasure than dread. But at the same time, there is always a little fear. This should not be. It is not where the expectant mother knows about Mother's Friend. But some do not, for the world is large, an it is those we wish to reach. Mother's Friend is an external liniment. It does away with the danger and pain of childbirth. These are not idle words. They are true, and proved by the testimony of many happy mothers.

HUMANE SOCIETY.

ANNUAL MEETING IS BEING HELD TODAY.

YEARLY REPORTS ARE READ

OFFICERS TO BE ELECTED FOR COMING YEAR.

SPECIAL OFFICER'S REPORT

MR. SCHLAUDROFF REVIEWS HIS WORK.

The annual meeting of the Humane society is being held this afternoon at the offices of A. H. Bittinger, attorney for the Board of Children's Guardians, in the Pixley-Long block. Much important business is before the society for consideration and the meeting is of much interest. Reports of the officers of the society were presented and discussed. Officers are to be elected and such other business transacted as shall come before the meeting. The most interesting of the reports presented was that of the society's special officer, L. C. Schlaudroff, as that summarizes just what the society has accomplished during the past year.

SPECIAL OFFICER'S REPORT.

The report in full is here given:

There are many lame horses driven on our streets that would not be lame if they were properly cared for. One cause for lameness, and perhaps the cause of the most of it, is improper shoeing, and allowing the shoes to remain on the feet too long, thereby causing corns to be formed. After the corns are once started many drivers think there can be nothing done for the horses, but let them suffer, and they are expected to go as fast as they did before. This is a mistake. If a veterinary was called as soon as the horse shows lameness and his instructions followed, this difficulty would soon be overcome. A lame horse should not be made go faster than a walk.

Our laws for punishing men who get drunk and then beat their wives or turn their families out of the house, the wife and little children being half fed or clothed, are insufficient. The only way now to punish such men is to make them pay a fine, or if they can't pay, send them to jail. If they pay they have that much less for the family to live on; if they have to go to jail, they cannot earn any money and perhaps lose their jobs. In this way the family again suffers, and perhaps more than he. For such men, after a fair and thorough trial, a good sound thrashing with a rawhide or cat-o'-nine-tails would do more good than a dozen fines and would not harm the family. Many such men go unpunished on this account.

I have taken many packages of clothing to the Relief union and Rescue home, which were donated by kind citizens. Nine days and a half were spent for the County Orphans' home in looking up the homes and surroundings of families who had made applications for children from the home. No charge for this work was made, the orphans' home paying actual expenses, such as railroad fare and livery hire.

I wish to thank T. E. Ellison, attorney for the Humane society, and A. H. Bittinger, attorney for the board of children's guardians, for their kindness in giving valuable advice and time free of charge to our work. I also thank the press of the city for kindly giving publication to our reports.

STRIKE GROWING.

INDIANAPOLIS TROUBLE IS SERIOUS.

BUILDING TRADES ARE OUT

NUMBER OF MEN RENDERED IDLE IS UNKNOWN.

MINERS' STRIKE SPREADING

PENNSYLVANIA TROUBLE IS VERY GRAVE.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 3.—Nearly all the building trades in Indianapolis are now affected by strikes. Carpenters, plumbers, hodcarriers and bricklayers were out today, but an accurate estimate of the number of men is as yet impossible. The trouble was precipitated by the going into effect of the 1900 wage scale.

Employers and employes appear anxious to settle the difficulties that have arisen, and it is believed that the men will be at work in a few days.

All the union hodcarriers in the city, about 100 in number, went out on strike today, and as a consequence all the bricklayers belonging to the local union were obliged to quit work. Building is almost at a standstill.

COAL STRIKE SPREADS.

Pittsburg, April 3.—Reports received today from the coal mines in the Pittsburg district indicate that the strike inaugurated yesterday against the dead work scale and the run of mine rate has assumed larger proportions than at first expected. Few mines are in operation and fully 20,000 miners are idle. No provisions were made for the strike and if it should continue for a week it is likely that every mill in the Pittsburg district depending on the two coal combinations for their supply of coal will have to shut down. There is less than a week's supply of coal in the Pittsburg harbor.

The strikers are determined, but the officials of the coal companies expect to effect a settlement before the end of the week. There is no change in the situation at Irwin. The miners are generally out and the pits are idle.

LINTON MINES CLOSED.

Linton, Ind., April 2.—All the coal mines have been closed and 1,100 miners are idle. The failure of the operators and miners to reach an agreement on the weekly pay and powder questions caused the tie-up.

THE HOUSE HABIT

"When I asked Mr. Emerson's friends if we were not going up into the grove to camp they said: 'No, it would never do to lie out in the night air,'" says John Muir in the Atlantic. "'Mr. Emerson might take cold and you know, Mr. Muir, that would be a dreadful thing.' In vain I urged that only in homes and hotels were colds caught, that nobody ever was known to take cold camping in these woods, that there was not a single cough or sneeze in all the Sierra. Then I pictured the big climate-changing, inspiring fire I would make, praised the beauty and fragrance of sequoia flame, told how the great trees would stand about us transfigured in the purple light, while the stars looked down between the great domes; ending by urging them to come on and make an immortal Emerson night of it.

"But the house habit was not to be overcome, nor the strange dread of pure night air, though it is only cooled day air with a little pure dew in it. So the carpet dust and unknowable reeks were preferred. And to think of this being a Boston choice! Sad commentary on culture and the glorious transcendentalism!"

DISPENSED WITH BLACKSMITH.

"Up at my camp near the Four Peaks," told Jim Bark, the well-known cattleman, "the boys are all handy with a rifle. We've a lot of guns up there. The old-fashioned black-powder Winchester has been discarded and nothing but the best goes. Most of the new guns were bought during the Spanish war, when we would experiment all day with tree trunks and rough trenches learning the art of war at home. We found that a bullet from one of the new Winchesters, driven by smokeless powder was good for four feet and more of pine timber, and for more than an inch of iron. I thought the boys had done about everything in the shooting line that could be done long ago, but I was mistaken.

"I sent them up a wagon. In hauling down some firewood they broke the bolsters all to flinders. The bolsters hold up the wagon bed, you know. Well, the boys figured out all right the rebuilding of the wooden parts, but came near being stumped on the iron fixings. They got some old iron wagon tires and cut them in proper lengths, but hadn't a way that they could see to punch the necessary bolt holes. Finally the question was solved. One of the boys carefully marked the places for the bolts, stood the pieces of tire against a tree and put a bullet, .30 calibre, through the tire at each place marked. It was a novel sort of blacksmithing, but it worked."—Arizona Graphic.

TRETMAN FINED

Albert Tretman, the aged man who has been making much work for the Associated Charities this winter, was arrested on a charge of failing to send his child to school as required by law. Although the family has resided here less than four months, the parents have been in the courts several times. 'Squire France assessed a fine against Tretman and supposed he would go to jail, but the old man asked the constable to wait awhile and he sent out of the court room and raised money with which to pay his fine.

GETTING IN TOUCH.

The nine bishops of the Anglican church in India have issued a liberal-minded pastoral letter in which they acknowledge with gratitude the many instances of sympathy and support they have received from non-Christians, and they urge churchmen, while steadfast in their own faith and striving for unity, to disclaim for themselves and deprecate in others the intention or the right to say any word that may cause just offense to Hindoos, Mohammedans or Buddhists.—Chicago Tribune.

MR. REED'S DOWNFALL.

A good story is told in West Virginia involving two of the congressmen from that snug little state and Thomas B. Reed, the gigantic speaker of the last house. The two West Virginians are Hon. Blackburn B. Dovener and Hon. Romeo Hoyt Freer. Both are small in stature and wonderfully alike in their general appearance. Together they went up to the ponderous Maine statesman to be introduced.

"Humph!" said Mr. Reed, "is that the best the Persimmon state can do?"

"What do you mean?" asked Mr. Freer.

"Nothing," drawled the elephantine speaker. "I was only wondering at the uniformity of things down your way. I suppose the horses are all ponies and the persimmons all dwarfs ——."

"Well," interrupted Mr. Freer, "there is one thing in our favor, the persimmon has more taste than the pumpkin."

The laugh was on the speaker, and he acknowledged it by cordially grasping the hands of the Lilliputians and joining in the merriment.—Success.

RAISED THE MINISTERS' FEE.

Relating his experiences as "A Missionary in the Great West" Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady tells of two weddings in the same town on the same day—one in the morning and one in the afternoon—at which he officiated: "The first wedding fee I received was $10—a very large remuneration for the place and people. After the second wedding the best man called me into a private room and thus addressed me: 'What's the tax, parson?' 'Anything you like, or nothing at all,' I answered. I have frequently received nothing. 'Now,' said he, 'we want to do this thing up in proper shape, but I have had no experiences in this business and do not know what is proper. You name your figure.' I suggested that the legal charge was $2. 'P'shaw!' he said, 'this ain't legal. We want to do something handsome.' 'Go ahead and do it,' I said, whereupon he reflected for a moment or two and then asked me how much I had received for the wedding of the morning. 'Ten dollars,' I replied. His face brightened; here was a solution to the difficulty. 'I'll see his ante,' he remarked, 'and raise him $5,' whereupon he handed me $15."—Ladies' Home Journal.

GROOM SENT WORD

PARSON AND GUESTS THERE

DECIDED TO TAKE THE FARM

CASE OF SUSPECTED SMALL POX IN PERU.

Kokomo, Ind., April 3.—The marriage of Miss Blanche Unger, of Middlefork, and Harris Jacoby, of Geetingsville, should have occurred at the former place Monday night. A large number of guests were invited, Rev. Mr. Prentice was present to perform the ceremony, a wedding feast was spread, and the youths of the village had gathered at the school house to "bell" the newly-wedded pair, after the village custom. However, Jacoby sent word that he would not appear, the guests and preacher were dismissed, and the marriage was declared off. The only reason offered by the prospective bridegroom for his action is, as said, that his marriage at this time would deprive him of a chance to secure a farm that he expected to get from his father. The Jacobys are wealthy farmers of Clinton county. Miss Unger is a daughter of Martin Unger, and is well connected in this and Clinton counties. Jacoby is said to be at school at Terre Haute.

THE BULLET FLEW WILD.

Goshen, Ind., April 3.—George R. McMasters, a member of the Goshen Novelty and Brush Manufacturing company, was shot and badly wounded while walking at a point 108 yards distant from where John Winters and Cyphas Messick were engaged in target practice. The shot was fired by Messick, who did not see McMasters, his bullet missing its aim. The ball struck Mr. McMasters in the right lung, lodging near his shoulder blade.

BURNED THE MORTGAGE.

Auburn, Ind., April 3.—At the Methodist church here Sunday, preceding the sermon, Rev. Mr. Guild conducted an impressive and happy ceremony. In the presence of a large audience Albert Robbins, of the Farmers' bank, marked "Paid in full" across a $3,000 mortgage, which was placed over the beautiful edifice nine years ago. The document was then destroyed.

MEASLES EPIDEMIC.

Wabash, Ind., April 3.—There are fifty cases of measles in this city, as reported by Health Officer Lorin W. Smith, who says the disease is spreading rapidly. Some of those afflicted with the disease are very ill.

CASE OF SMALL POX AT PERU.

Peru, Ind., April 3.—Considerable excitement was caused here today by the discovery that Clarence Petro, a freight conductor of this city, has been stricken with small pox. The house is under quarantine.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, April 3.—Opening prices at the stock exchange showed concessions from yesterday's close. Special weakness in individual stocks, coupled with lower prices from London, prompted selling. Federal steel sold off 3⅜c on a scale down with 7,000 shares changing hands. Sugar lost a point, but other losses were small.

Several prominent stocks were bid up sharply in an effort to check the decline. Substantial recoveries were made by federal steel and sugar and St. Paul and Anaconda were notably strong. The advances, however, were short-lived, as the improved level brought out more abundant offerings and the entire list gave way to the lowest.

Federal steel broke to 40c. The market hardened again before 11 o'clock, but became dull at the rally.

The market continued dull and price changes were narrow until near noon, when a rise of 3¾ points in Baltimore & Ohio common and over a point in the preferred stiffened the list.

Bonds were steady and quite a large curtailment in the demand.

THE MONEY MARKET.

New York, April 3.—Money on call nominally, 2½ per cent; prime mercantile paper, 4½@5¼ per cent; sterling exchange steady, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.86¾@4.87 for demand and at $4.82¾@4.83 for 60 days; posted rates, $4.83½ and $4.87; commercial bills, $4.81½@4.82½; silver certificates, 60¼@61¼c; bar silver, 59¼c; Mexican dollars, 47½c.

THE ASSOCIATED CHARITIES.

Secretary Mohler has prepared his monthly report of the work of the Associated Charities, which is as follows: There were fifty-two applications for relief, fifteen of which were new; thirty-two were resident families with children and eight were non-residents; thirty-one investigations were made and fifteen applicants were found to be not in need; eight were offered work in the labor yard and three accepted; three women were offered work in the sewing room; three persons were found temporary places of employment and one secured permanent employment. Sixty-one calls were made from the secretary's office; there were 209 telephone calls and 191 persons called at the secretary's office. In the families applying for aid were eighty-eight adults and 118 children, a total of 206 persons.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of Westminster Presbyterian church was held on Monday evening in the church, F. W. Antrup acting as chairman. The following officers were elected: Trustees, F. W. Antrup and Alexander Baxter; finance committee, J. E. Tennent, Dr. W. R. Wenger, B. W. Evans and E. S. Moses. Charles S. Bash was re-elected treasurer of the church. Messrs. F. Cutshall and Hoxenstein were elected an auditing committee. The annual reports of the officers were read and showed that the financial status of the church was good. Reports were also read from the Sunday school, Christian Endeavor society, Social circle, Women's Home and Foreign Missionary societies, Children's Mission band and Junior Christian Endeavorers. Within a few months a large installment of the church debt will be paid, the exact amount of which will be decided later. A number of other business matters of interest in the church were discussed during the meeting.

BOUGHT THE PLANT

IT MAY AFFECT FORT WAYNE ADVANTAGEOUSLY.

AN AGED STATION AGENT AT ABOITE RETIRES.

According to a story from New York, told in a special telegram last night to the Chicago Tribune, the Siemens-Halske Electric company has been absorbed by the General Electric company. This is a bit of news that will cause no little consternation in Fort Wayne and a confirmation or denial will be anxiously awaited. Should it prove correct, the probabilities are that either the Chicago or the Fort Wayne works will suffer, for the General Electric company may find it unprofitable to maintain both up to the present standard. The Sentinel is inclined to the belief that if one of the establishments is abandoned in part or in full, it will not be the one in this city, because Fort Wayne offers inducements in the way of competent and contented labor that cannot always be found in the larger cities. Nor that skilled labor is cheaper here than elsewhere, but mechanics are more reliable and industrial conditions are free from the discontent and disturbance that mark those of the Windy City. Another reason why Fort Wayne may be favored is the fact that the works here are well managed and have yielded a handsome dividend on the money invested. Mr. Wood, the general manager, has been encouraged in every way and at the present time is increasing the facilities of the shops by adding a lot of new machinery. Last week a japanning machine for preparing the material used in the construction of armature cores was put in operation. This machine accomplishes in two hours what it required two or three days for two boys with brushes to perform. Today there arrived at the works a "bull-dozer" for the blacksmith department, which will be employed in making magnets, heading bolts, etc., and other machinery is en route here to be used in the machinery and other departments. The General Electric company, which acquired the Fort Wayne plant a year ago, was organized in New York on April 15, 1892. The Siemens-Halske company was organized in 1895, when it purchased the Grant Locomotive works in Cicero, a suburb of Chicago, and converted them into electric works. The New York dispatch referred to in the foregoing reads as follows:

"The General Electric company, of New York, has secured control of the Siemens-Halske Electric company of America, the stock of the latter corporation having been bought by the individual stockholders in the General Electric. The Siemens-Halske company will be conducted independently for a time, but eventually will be merged into the General Electric corporation. This merging of interests will leave only two companies in the field, the General Electric and the Westinghouse company, but a working contract is in existence between the two, preventing any friction or encroachment by either on the field of the other. The General Electric company is dominated by the Pierpont Morgan interests. The Siemens-Halske company was sold about a year ago to the Widener-Elkins combination, which bought the company in order to manufacture its own electrical supplies in its own factory. It is understood that with the sale of the Siemens-Halske plant the Widener-Elkins people have retained a guarantee of a favorable contract, running a long time, by which they will be protected. The plan on the part of the General Electric company to secure the control of the rival concerns has been on foot for ten months. It is understood that Chicago directors of the Siemens-Halske company are now on their way to this city."

GRAND ARMY RATES.

A rate of one fare has been made by the lines in the passenger department of the trunk line association for the Grand Army encampment at Chicago in August, says the Indianapolis Journal. This is practically equivalent to the rate of one cent a mile by the lines represented in the Central Traffic association. The lines west of Chicago have made a rate of one and one-half cents. All the associations have made more strict regulations as to the fares for committees, bands, etc, than have been enforced in other years. The trunk lines, like the other lines, will recognize bands as entitled to a special rate only when in uniform.

A NEW ENGINEER

This morning C. Braitwaith assumed the position of enigneer at the Wabash shops, succeeding George Lamb, who will return to firing on the railway. Mr. Braitwaith was employed for several years as an engineer in the road service of the Nickel Plate and is said to be an excellent man in that line of work.

HEALTH CONDITIONS BETTER.

The pleasant weather today has brought about a better condition at the railways than prevailed there for several days previous. This morning twenty-two engineers and firemen, who had been on the absentee list, chiefly on account of sickness, reported for duty and the new names on the list were not as numerous as on previous lists. They are: Engineer L. M. Pfeiffer and Firemen Frank Wright, C. E. Larkin and J. F. Gaskins, sick, and Engineers Clarence Misner and U. G. Roodes off duty because of sickness in their families. In the shops the new names on the sick list were Valentine Berger, Jule Henry, William Long and Jerry Conners, while a much larger number who had been on the sick list reported for duty. Included in this list are Engine Inspector Blank, who was sick; Boilermaker B. L. Larimore, who was injured, and Louis Miller, boilermaker, who was sick.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

O. F. Cannie, of the Wabash blacksmith shop, is sick.

M. S. Willson, of the electric works, is off duty on account of the sickness of his wife.

Engineer Levi Latimore, of the Nickel Plate, is off duty on account of sickness.

Nickel Plate Firemen C. Jerome, A. Kocher and H. Mansfield are on the sick list.

T. E. Short, the Nickel Plate engineer, is on the Kankakee marshes, shooting ducks.

The little son of William Seabold of the electric works, has recovered from a severe illness.

Walter Newman, a steamfitter went to Peru yesterday to do some work for the Wabash company.

Nickel Plate Engineer George Chartier has gone to Valparaiso to attend a funeral of a relative.

Ed. Keifer, a carpenter employed on the Bass building, has a new son, who put in an appearance last night.

Brakeman A. G. Rosenberg, of the Nickel Plate, is duck hunting on the marshes and ponds near Knox, Ind.

Fireman James Godfrey, of the Nickel Plate, is kept from his work on the road by the sickness of his wife.

J. E. Smith, of the Wabash shops who has been visiting in Springfield, will return to his duties in the blacksmith department tomorrow.

W. E. Paul, of the Pittsburg planing mills, left this morning over the Wabash road for New Orleans, where he will sojourn about two weeks.

Master Mechanic B. Fitzpatrick and Master Car Builder J. A. Graham, of the Pittsburg, left at noon today for Columbus, Ohio, on business for the company.

A. A. Sanders, for six months a switchman in the Nickel Plate yards, has gone into the through freight service and has been assigned to Conductor Pierce's crew.

Chief Dispatcher W. H. Tiger and Dispatcher M. E. Tuttle, of the Pittsburg, are today out on the west end of the road, conferring with operators and inspecting their offices.

Peter Harris, employed in the section department of the Pittsburg, under Foreman James O'Leary, has taken a two weeks' leave of absence to attend to some private affairs.

Mr. Ehringer, the blacksmith who had a foot injured a few days ago at the Wabash shops, is improving, though the member is still very sore and will keep him from work some time.

Sylvester McMahon, the well known passenger conductor on the Pittsburg road, is out again after a three weeks' attack of the grip, the second since the holidays. Mr. McMahon is anxious to resume his run on the road and may take his train out tomorrow.

E. J. Holtman, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, is possessed of the attributes of a good soldier. Yesterday the little finger of his left hand was lacerated severely, a portion of the end being cut off, but he continued at work, stopping only long enough to have the wounded digit wrapped in a cloth.

Ed. McDonald, assistant road foreman of engines of the Pittsburg, has gone to Valparaiso to attend the funeral of a relative, Mr. LaForce, who was for many years prominently identified with the business interests of that city. Engineer Peter Carter is also a relative of the deceased and will attend the funeral.

The Sells Bros.' circus, in four sections, passed over the Panhandle on Friday. Fifty of the cars were just out of the shops and made a handsome procession.

The father of Theodore Vandivert, a well known civil engineer in the service of the Pennsylvania, has just passed his ninety-second birthday and the event was celebrated at his home in New Castle last week.

A caller at the Kerr Murray works yesterday was B. A. Bixby, of Decatur, Ill., who is the general manager of the Decatur Gas and Electric company. The Kerr Murray company is about to put in some gas machinery at Decatur.

The magnificent union station in St. Louis will have a diminutive counterpart on exhibition at the Paris exposition this summer. The object is to direct attention to St. Louis, where the world's fair is to be held in 1903.

Thomas Graffe, a son of Fred Graffe, is now night messenger at the Grand Rapids and Indiana offices. He is an intelligent and ambitious lad and the reader must expect to soon learn of his promotion to more important positions.

Western roads are voting on a proposition to grant rates of one fare plus $2 to the international convention of the Baptist Young People's union of America, to be held in Cincinnati July 10 to 13. It is expected that 14,000 will attend.

Supt. J. B. McKim, of the Pennsylvania, is en route to California, where he will sojourn for a few weeks in hope of receiving physical benefits. Mr. McKim suffered an attack of grip two months ago and his health has been poor since.

Brakemen F. J. Galligher and T. H. Gallivan are off duty, the former on account of sickness. Brakeman C. M. Tindell is disabled by a sprained wrist. Brakemen A. F. and E. M. Young have reported for work after being on the sick list. All are Nickel Plate employes.

The Kerr Murray works have completed the shipment of machinery and material for the big gas plant the company is installing at Darby, Pa., the seventh and last carload leaving the works yesterday. Over 600,000 pounds of metal were used in making the gas holder.

The Western New York and Pennsylvania will shortly increase the wages of its men 5 per cent., placing them on a basis in effect years ago. An increase of 5 per cent. was ordered by President De Coursey some time ago, and he promised to return to the old scale when the earnings warranted it.

On Thursday when the different immigrant parties bound for the northwest were concentrated at St. Paul fifty tourist sleeping cars were required to transport them to their destination. Included in the party were a number of persons from Adams and Jay counties, who passed through this city a week ago.

It is stated that President Truesdale has under consideration the recommendation from both traffic departments of a readjustment of salaries in favor of the employes of the Lackawanna. This advance will affect all general officers and all assistants, including clerks, and it will soon be put in effect. This step was inaugurated three months ago.

The Ladies' auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen expect a big crowd in attendance upon their "hard-time" social Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Lichtenwalter, No. 320 South Calhoun street. Some of the costumes will be marvels in construction. Every participant or spectator is assured a good time.

Robert Mantell, the actor, has a bull dog; so has Miss Russell, one of the actresses in the Mantell company. This morning the canines got into a fight at the south depot and created quite an excitement there. Mr. Mantell and Miss Russell each rushed to the rescue of their pets and by vigorous pulling managed to separate them, but not before both of the dogs were injured.

Jacob Hill, the aged station agent for the Wabash at Aboite, has retired from that position and R. B. Cameron has succeeded him. The company found it necessary to put a telegraph operator at Aboite, and as the station is not a very important one, the offices of agent and operator were combined and Mr. Cameron sent there to fill the place. Aboite's chief industry is making charcoal. The surrounding country is also well adapted to grass and vast quantities of hay are shipped from Aboite.

Frank Greer, timekeeper in the transportation department of the Pittsburg, is one of the many firm believers in the efficacy of the advertising columns of The Sentinel. Several months ago Mr. Greer lost a valuable ring and placed a notice in The Sentinel. A gentleman who does not care to have his name mentioned found the ring a day or two ago at the edge of the sidewalk, where it had lain ever since it dropped from the owner's finger, and recalling to mind the "lost" notice, he returned the ring to Mr. Greer, who had given up all hope of recovering it.

ANOTHER SPANISH LETTER.

Paul E. Wolf is in receipt of a letter from a man in Madrid, Spain, who purports to be a relative of Mr. Wolf, and the missive is very similar to that received some time ago by John B. Monning. It is written on the same kind of paper, in much the same chirography, but bears the signature of Louis Semper Wolf instead of Louis Semper Monning. It sets forth a tale of woe similar to the appeal to Mr. Monning, claiming relationship; the writer is in prison; has a fortune which he desires to give to his daughter, but cannot secure it and wants Mr. Wolf's assistance, promising a fourth of the entire amount as a reward for the interest of the American relative. The country appears to have been pretty thoroughly sprinkled with these missives, and while nobody seems able to explain the modus operandi of the transaction contemplated, all are united in the belief that it is a gigantic swindle of some sort. None of the gentlemen addressed have any relatives in Madrid.

A LIFE COMPANION

And a Very Undesirable One.

With thousands of people in this climate catarrh is a constant and life long companion; it gets better at times, but each year becomes gradually deeper seated and after a time the individual resigns himself to it as a necessary evil.

Catarrh cures are almost as numerous as catarrh sufferers, but are nearly all so inconvenient and ineffective as to render their use a nuisance nearly as annoying as catarrh itself.

It would seem at first glance that catarrh being a disease of the mucous membrane that salves, sprays, etc., being applied directly to the membranes would be the most rational method, but this has proven not to be true.

The mucous membrane is made and repaired from the blood and catarrh is a blood disorder, and a remedy to be permanent must act on the blood and when purified from Catarrhal poison the secretions from the mucous membrane will become natural and healthy.

There are a number of excellent internal remedies for catarrh, but probably the best and certainly the safest is a new remedy composed of Eucalyptol, Hydrastis, Sanguinaria and other catarrh specifics. This remedy is in tablet form, pleasant to the taste and sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and anyone suffering from catarrh may use these tablets with absolute assurance that they contain no cocaine nor poisonous minerals whatever.

A leading druggist in Cleveland, speaking of catarrh cures, says, "I have sold various catarrh cures for years, but have never sold any which gave such general satisfaction as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. They contain in a pleasant, concentrated form all the best and latest catarrh remedies and catarrh sufferers, who have used douches, sprays and salves, have been astonished at the quick relief and permanent results obtained after a week's use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

INITIATE ONE HUNDRED.

Wayne tent, No. 54, K. O. T. M., will initiate about 100 members into the order on May 3. Committees have been at work for several weeks securing applications and the result is that they have over seventy and expect to have the full number by the date set for the festivities. Wayne tent is fourth in strength of organization in the state, having 314 members, and the addition of 100 members will put them in second place. A number of the supreme officers will be present on the festive occasion and it will be made one of the chief events in the history of the organization. A smoker and pedro party will be given by the lodge on Thursday evening, when the prospective members will have an opportunity to become acquainted with present members.

The Samaritans of the World will initiate eight candidates Friday evening, at which time a number of the supreme officers will be present. H. S. Chester, supreme secretary, and H. E. Stevens, chairman of the senate, will address the meeting.

ABOUT LIQUIFIED AIR.

In the rooms of the Commercial club Monday evening E. J. Richards, manager for Indiana of the Tripler Liquid Air company, addressed a number of local capitalists and members of the Commercial club on liquified air, and explained the methods of business followed by the Tripler company, of New York. The meeting was called to order by C. R. Lane, the local agent, who described the process by which the air is liquified and the many uses to which it can be put. An address was made by Alexander Johnson, superintendent of the feeble minded institute. Mr. Johnson explained that while the stock of the parent company in New York could be disposed of to a few of the wealthy men in the east, it would require a much longer time to reach the rest of the country by that method than the company is rapidly doing by the present method. Mr. Richards explained the system of organization of the parent company and the standing of the moneyed men constituting the officers of the company. He stated that the Tripler company would own and control all the foreign plants, and the money raised from the sale of the 100,000 shares recently taken up would be devoted to the erection of a plant in New York city, the work on which would begin shortly. Mr. Richards stated that the plant in Indianapolis would cost between $150,000 and $200,000 and it will contain machinery capable of producing 2,000 gallons of liquid air per day. Mr. Richards was asked by C. R. Higgins if an ammonia ice making plant could be easily turned into a liquid air plant and he states that it could be done with comparatively small cost. A number of those present at the meeting subscribed for stock and the number of shares now taken is about eighty. Mr. Richards stated that Professor B. [illegible] would make a demonstration in the city in a short time.

To My Customers and Friends.

Thursday Morning, April 5th

will resume my old connection with the Foster Furniture and Carpet company, of this city. Any favors you may show me, either in purchasing goods yourselves, or in sending your friends to me, who have Furniture and Carpets to buy, I shall greatly appreciate. As has always been my custom, I shall be ever ready to assist you in any way I can, representing goods to you just as they are, and endeavoring to serve you honestly, faithfully and promptly.

Very respectfully,

Charles A. Feistkorn.

Referring to the above, we voice not only our own sentiments, but also those of our customers, when we express our satisfaction at having Mr. Feistkorn again with us. He will have charge of our fine Carpet salesroom in conjunction with Mr. Studor, Mr. Smith and Mr. Maushaum. Thus manned, our Carpet Department will this spring further outclass all competition than ever before. Mr. Samuel J. Betz will remain at the head of our Carpet laying force and Miss Louisa Berning will continue in charge of the making rooms.

Certainly no firm in the city is so well equipped for doing the Carpet business so promptly, so well, and so entirely to the satisfaction of its patrons.
